In January Monday night volleyball resumes and we have the Nativity Scene Take-down, Scat Night, and the Human Services/Jaycee TV Auction. Chairmen are needed for JC Week (ID) - Jan. 21-27, the Installation Banquet (ID), the 2nd Grade Basketball Clinic (CD), and Placemats (W&M) for the Pancake Breakfast. Contact the area Vice-Presidents for more information.

Yours in Jaycees,

Thank You

We gratefully acknowledge your contribution.

Your generosity will enable us to continue assisting our Friends and Neighbors within our Community.

Founders Day 1991

The next meeting of the 1991 Foxboro Founders Day planning committee will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 8 at 7 p.m. at Memorial Hall.

All groups, clubs, organizations and individuals who are interested in participating in the June 8 event are invited to join in the planning effort.

If you are unable to attend the meeting but would like to participate, call Ginny Coppola at 543-9243.

FOXBORO JAYCEES
GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING
12 DECEMBER 1990

- I INTRODUCTION: Sandy Smith chaired the meeting in the absence of Tim Kennedy(again).
- II SECRETARY REPORT: All mail picked up and delivered. minutes of last meeting were printed in the Fox. The Secretary suggests a Christmas card be sent to the Foxboro Reporter thanking them for all of their support through the year.
- III TREASURER REPORT: We are in pretty good shape after the Haunted House. There are still some discrepancies in billing that have to be straightened out. A copy of our financial report was passed around.
- IV INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT
- A) Volleyball-B.Smith: There has been a fairly good turn-out lately. Anyone interested come to the Igo gym on Monday nights from 7-9pm. The cost is $5.00.
  - B) Stickey Wicket Pub-F.Badger: Due to the Foxboro Jaycees' lack of interest in going to The Stickey Wicket, they have filed for chapter 11 !!!!!
  - C) Progressive Dinner-S.Smith&K.Mordaunt: All the assignments have been given out. The event takes place this Saturday evening.
  - D) Haunted House Break-Up Party-K.Badger: This party was a big success, with a spaghetti dinner, DJ, and Dancing, as well as the now famous "Ode To The Haunted House". Also, awards were given for participation. They included certificates, Tee shirts, and sweatshirts.
  - E) Ski Trip-P.Kelly: This is not really a JC project, but many members do attend. It is planned for the second week of February. Anyone still interested should contact Paul Kelly.
- V COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT
- A) Santa on the Common-T.Tomasello: This is set for this Saturday. Santa will be on the common from 10am-2pm. Gifts and canned food will be accepted for the Discretionary Fund. A large coffee urn is still needed for hot cocoa. Sue Kennedy offered to supply one.
  - B) Santa Phone-G.Wilhelm: These call will be going out next Wed. and Thurs. A sign-up sheet was passed around for kids who need calls and Santas to do the calling.
  - C) Sand for Seniors-P.St.Laurent: Peter still needs 10-15 buckets. He is having trouble with the Donut shops. His contact for sand is all set.
  - D) Nativity Scene Set-up-B.Webster: The scene was set up on Dec.1. It was mentioned that in the past there were pine boughs put up on the railings. This should be looked into. The date for take-down is January 5th. Some help may be needed.
  - D) TV Auction, 20 Jan.-J.Evans: The fourth annual event will be taking place on the Sunday before Superbowl, from 2-7pm. They need a Jaycee chairperson to organize the manpower of helping Cable set-up and breakdown. Peter St.Laurent volunteered.
  - G) Wrentham State Gala, 30 November T.Kennedy: The Jaycees that attended were impressed with the fanciness of the affair. Tim Kennedy bid for and purchased a CD player.

H)TDDY Donation: The machine for the hearing impaired was donated to the Foxboro Police Dept. Their old machine was given to Human Services.

I) Pancake Breakfast-T.Sawran: It is still early, but tickets and grills should be looked into soon.

VI WAYS & MEANS

A) Haunted House-C.Ienello: We had a very good income from this event. Final figures are not available until some outstanding bill are taken care of.

B) Christmas Tree Sale-F.Badger: AS of last night there were 120 trees sold. Fred would like to thank all those who have given their time to come down and sell trees.

C)Celebrity Roast fact finder-S.Shapardson: Vin Igo has agreed to be "roasted". There are still many logistical problems to take care of. A date should be chosen by the next GM.

D) Jaycee Sleds-T.Sawran: Tom reports that"Sawrans' slick sled sales s***,"It seem that the Christmas Tree sale was not the place for sleds. This is still a good idea, but a better venue is needed. Two sleds were sold at the tree sale and the Webster children are still waiting for snow!

VII MEMBERSHIP

A membership committee has been formed and they met earlier this week. The plan is to try to get as many referrals as possible from our members. These people will be called in the hopes of getting some interested new faces to show up at the next GM.

VIII OLD BUSINESS

IX NEW BUSINESS

Sue Kennedy has asked that someone take over meeting and progams. This involves supplying the Beer, soda and snacks for each meeting. The membership committee will take care of the next meeting.

X JC OF THE MONTH

Peter St.Laurent for his involvement with the tree sale and many other projects as well.

XI PROJECT OF THE MONTH

Haunted House Break-up party, Kathy Badger.

XV ADJOURNMENT

Just in time for Christmas, the official Founders Day '91 sweatshirts and tee-shirts have arrived and - well, better get out your sunglasses. The shirts sport a logo featuring a burst of fireworks emblazoned in dazzling neon colors, and are perfect for those last-minute stocking stuffers.

Shirts can be purchased at Memorial Hall on Wednesday nights from 7 to 9 p.m., or by calling Karen Mordaunt (543-3694) or Ginny Coppola (543-9243). They are available in black, royal blue or jade. Adult tee-shirts are $8 ($10 for XXL size), and sweatshirts are $14 ($16 for XXL size). Children's tee-shirt sizes are $7 and sweatshirts are $11.

INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT
DECEMBER REPORT

VOLLEYBALL - Brian Smith reports that there have been just enough people coming on most Monday nights. If anyone is interested in playing on Mondays at 7pm at the Vin Igo Building, give Brian a call. (or just show up)

WHITEWATER RAFTING- Peter St. Laurent is beginning to make plans for this event some time this spring. The cost of the weekend will be approximately $250 each which will include meals, lodging, a full day of rafting and transportation by bus if we can get at least fifteen people. If you are at all interested, talk to Peter soon. He is trying to get an idea of the size of the group interested - no committment yet.

PROGRESSIVE DINNER - Karen Mordant and myself would like to thank all those who participated in the dinner. It was again a large success. We had a few over forty people dining which made for a lot of fun. Special thanks to Sue Kennedy for volunteering at the last minute to host the appetizers along with the Capeces after a last minute sick call from the Auditore house. (We hope all the Auditore's were feeling well in time for the holidays.)

SCAT NIGHT - The Shepardson's are hosting an informal night of cards for anyone that is interested. Scat is a quick group game of cards to learn for anyone who has not done this before. It is a lot of fun so if you are free on January 12th and would like to join us, feel free. They will have more details at the GM.

JC WEEK - JC Week is quickly coming up on us again this year and we are looking for a chairperson to take this project. In the past, we have put an add in The Foxboro Reporter telling what our group is all about. Elaine Fullerton put together a nice piece last year and we'd love to see it followed up this year. Anyone interested please see me.

INSTALLATION BANQUET - It's time to start planning - we need a chairperson for this one too. Anyone interested, please see me.

SKI TRIP - Paul Kelly is running a ski trip again this year to the Morgensleben Lodge at Pleasant Mountain in Maine. The lodge holds about 40 people and Paul reports that it will be near full for this trip. He may still have a number of spots open if anyone is interested still. The trip is planned for Febuary 1-3. Anyone going on Friday will most likely travel to Sunday River for skiing. Give Paul a call if you'd like to join in.

HAPPY NEW YEAR EVERYONE !!!

JAYCEE CHRISTMAS TREE SALE:
The Foxboro Jaycees will start their annual tree sale at Camp Lincoln Hill (on Oak Street in Foxboro) on Saturday, December 1st. Hours: Monday -Friday, 6-9 p.m., Saturday, 9 a.m. - 9 p.m., Sunday, 9 a.m. - 6 p.m. Come support the Foxboro Jaycees.

Sandy Smith, IDVP

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Santa on the Common - T. Tomasello

Santa visited the common on Dec.15th. There were plenty of kids on hand to talk to Santa. There were also lots of donations both in the way of gifts and food items. Congratulations to Terry for an excellent first project.

Nativity Scene Set-Up - B. Webster

The nativity scene is scheduled to be taken down on Jan.5th. If you can spare some time, please give Bob a call.

Santa Phone - G. Wilhelm

More than 30 calls were made by Santa Claus this year to the kids in town. Thanks to Gordon for his effort.

Sand for Seniors - P. St. Laurent

Peter is continuing to deliver sand and is receiving more calls now that the bad weather is expected.

TV Auction - P. St. Laurent

The date of the auction is Jan. 20,1991. It is not like some of the other projects with regard to the amount of manpower, but it will be needed. Moving of the items to be auctioned off will be Sat., Jan. 19th and will require a minimum amount of help. The day of the auction will require the luggers and tuggers. Peter will be calling soon, so please lend a hand.

Pancake Breakfast - T. Sawran

The date is March 24, 1991. Tom will be ordering tickets and reserving griddles in the next week or so.

Second Grade Basketball Clinic - Chairman Needed

Away in a Manger .....

FACE OF WONDER — With a careful touch, Rick Perry of the Foxboro Jaycees arranges the plaster figure of a worshipful shepherd in its rightful place on the Common bandstand last Saturday, just or many in the town's traditional nativity display.

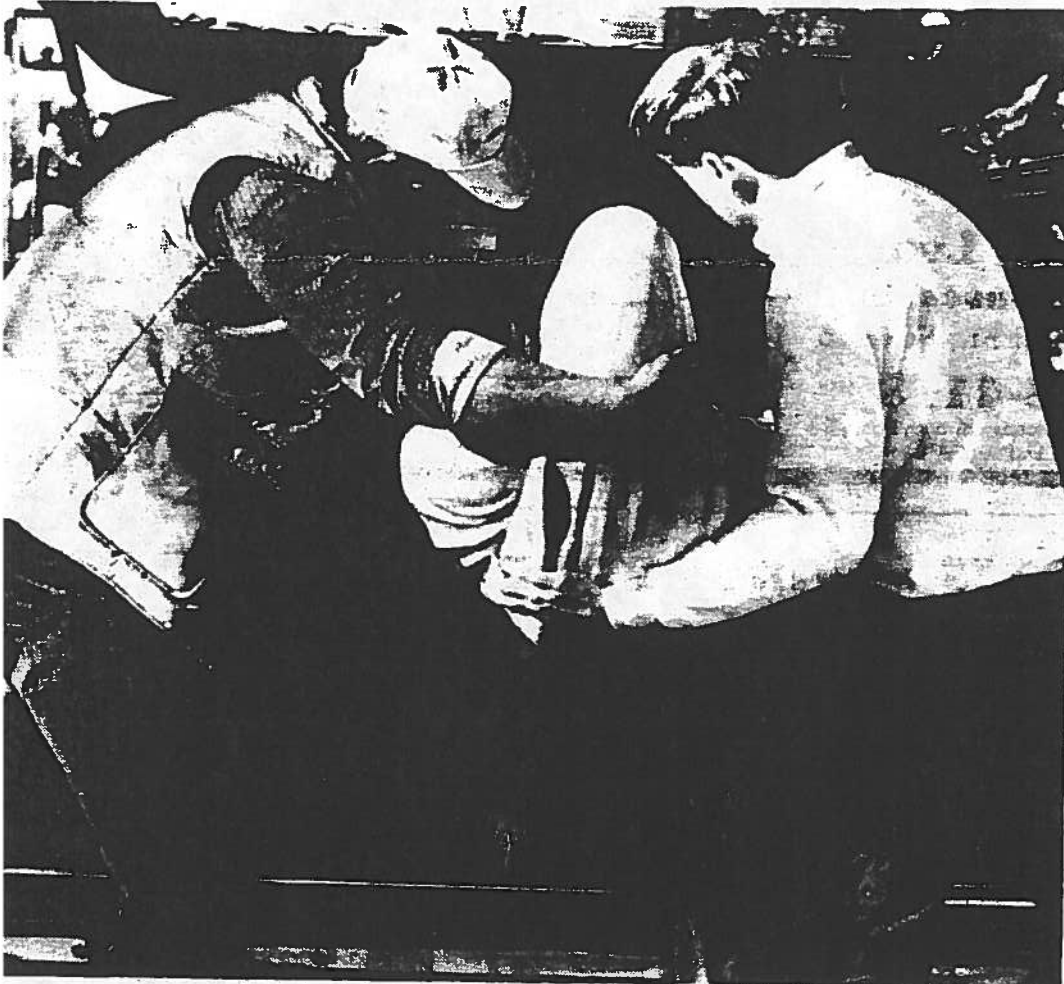

The Foxboro Jaycees take a pilgrimage of their own every Christmas season. The trek begins in the boarded-up school building on the corner of South and West streets, where the life-size, plaster statues of infant Jesus, Mary, Joseph and other nativity figures are stored on wooden pallets. It ends on the Foxboro Common, where the bandstand is transformed into a creche.

Watched by local children Saturday afternoon, Jaycees president Tim Kennedy, Rick Perry and Bob Webster lifted statues weighing up to 200 pounds from the back of a van and gingerly placed them in the manger. They hung an angel on the back wall, scattered hay, and erected a small fence.

The Jaycees continue their holiday season work with a Santa on the Common event for the Discretionary Fund near the manger 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 15.

Visiting Santa is free, but people are encouraged to bring money, canned goods or wrapped presents for the Discretionary Fund. Presents should be labeled to indicate the gender and age range for which the gift would be appropriate.

HANDLE WITH CARE — Parked on the Foxboro Common, Bob Webster (left) and Tim Kennedy cradle the head and back of the Virgin Mary statue while setting up the nativity scene Saturday afternoon.

ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE — Bearing plaster shepherd, Perry approaches final step of his mission.

An open letter to the people of Foxboro from Santa

Thank you, volunteers of Foxboro. Your generosity and caring made my trip to your town so much easier this year.

More people turned to me for help this year than ever before, and I just couldn't do everything by myself. More than 80 children received new clothes and toys under the tree at Christmas through my friends at the Foxboro Discretionary Fund. I heard the children's cries of delight and saw the tears of joy shed by their parents at the sight, and it reminded me once again of the real meaning of Christmas.

All this never would have been possible without the help and caring of many, many people.

Kathy Kilroy and her family, joined by members of The Women of Today (better known as the Jaycee Wives) spent days and weeks looking over my lists, checking sizes, shopping (and wrapping) for the dozens of families who needed a little boost this time of year.

Raschel Gray and her staff outdid themselves once again, donating thousands of dollars worth of new clothes so the kids on my list will be warm and well-dressed when they return to school. And knowing how kids like surprises, they even included some lovely stuffed toys for added enjoyment.

That shiny new bicycle, donated by my friends at Foxboro Photo, generated a lot of money for charitable projects, thanks to Carl Kusch who took charge of ticket sales.

And I will always be grateful to the Gibson family and their many helpers for the first annual Discretionary Fund Dinner Dance. The folks at the End Zone and Taylor Rental, as well as many other merchants, donated most of the necessities, everyone seemed to have a great time, and the money raised will go a long way to help with fuel or utility costs for families caught up in the economic problems that have affected so many.

The people at Saint Mark's Church, the Eldergram Association and Red Cross made and filled almost 100 stockings for the mothers, dads and kids on my list. The Girl Scouts in Troop 924, led by Janet Beaverstock, donated many rolls of wrapping paper, boxes and their precious time to wrap presents for the many families I wanted to visit on Christmas Eve.

The children at Burrell and Taylor Schools hung Christmas stockings on their doors, and filled them with money, donating almost $800 to the Discretionary Fund, all of which is used to help Foxboro people during difficult times. And the children donated many boxes of food for the baskets that were delivered. And at Foxboro High School, the National Honor Society "adopted" a family, doing all the shopping for toys and clothes, and all the homerooms were in spirited competition, "buying" links for paper chains that would encircle their rooms, each trying to raise the most money for worthy causes.

Many families, some of them on limited budgets themselves, shopped for other families, making Christmas merrier for people they would never get to meet, but knew they were in need, and wanted to do something about it. Their sharing made me feel real good.

Beatrice Nadeau and Dot Coddling knit year-round, donating such beautiful sweaters, afghans, scarves and mittens to people that appreciate them very much. Rose Horvath made the holiday sweeter by donating homemade chocolate lollipops. Mike Eisenhower donated the proceeds of a plumbing job so one child on my list would have toys and clothes for Christmas and his wife Maria stitched dresses, bibs and aprons, and I thank them so much for sharing.

Canisters were donated to the cause, and willing merchants and businesses allowed volunteers to place them next to their cash registers to make it easy for those willing to share. Special thanks to Mike and Michael Messina who designed the canister inserts and assembled almost 300 units. Jerry Rodman handled distribution and I am particularly grateful to all of those who were so generous, especially the two young girls who went to the Foxboro Reporter office and emptied their piggy bank into the canister so someone else could enjoy the holiday. They certainly are an inspiration.

People at Bethany Church and Saint Mark's, as well as students in each of the schools and the employees of The Foxboro Company all donated nonperishable food which helped so many families. At the post office, employees organized a drop-off place where food and new toys could be donated for the Discretionary Fund and many of the workers were generous donors as well. I want Laurie Goddard to know it was a great idea, and many teen-agers appreciated the gift certificates they provided.

I had a great visit when the Jaycees invited me to appear on the Foxboro Common. It gave me a chance to hear firsthand what many children wanted for Christmas, and they in turn were generous in donating food and gifts for the Discretionary Fund. We all had a grand time.

Food baskets, including all the fixings for a holiday dinner, were distributed by the Discretionary Fund to nearly 40 families at Thanksgiving and to 51 of them at Christmas. Saint Mark's Church was a beehive of activity while things were being prepared by volunteers from Saint Mark's, Bethany, St. Mary's and from the community at large. Even whole families showed up to help. The Newcomers Club did the sorting, and I am extremely grateful to Barbara Benson, who keeps the Food Pantry orderly and well-stocked, and to Jack Authalet, who organizes the food program with the help of a small army of volunteers who spend one night packing (in boxes donated by Rea-Craft Press) and a second night reaching out to people in need in every corner of the community. All the nonperishable food is donated, all the work is volunteer, and the food distribution is part of the safety net sustaining families 365 days each and every year.

With more than 80 children on the list for Christmas toys and clothing, even Santa had problems with the packing. So Bob Kilroy, assisted by Lorraine and Stan Garland, could be spotted all through the town just before Christmas, checking all the dumpsters for discarded boxes that could be filled with presents. They returned just in time to help pack my sleigh.

All the shopping and wrapping had been completed (as we know it must be before Christmas Eve), a massive undertaking headed by Sue Messina, Santa's Foxboro coordinator. Making a list and checking it twice (a trick she learned from me) while making hundreds of calls, checking needs sizes and worrying over every detail, she found many helping hands including Pauline Brown, Lorraine Garland and the Kilroy family, each of them one of my special helpers. They had everything read when yet another group of volunteers arrived, giving up their own Christmas Eve for the joy of helping others.

Once my sleigh was loaded, they were off again to every corner of the community with huge boxes filled with warm coats, hats and mittens, school clothes and party dresses, topped off with toys certain to bring many smiles and tears of joy. Presents were opened on Christmas morning by some who, without help, would have had no presents.

It truly was a Merry Christmas in Foxboro, not only for those who received, but especially for those who gave in so many ways.

Without the help of the many donors and volunteers, Santa would not have been able to bring so much happiness to so many people. Your generosity, your caring and willingness to share reflect the true meaning of Christmas, and I look forward to working with you again next year when I can give even more people an opportunity to help bring joy to the lives of others. Thank you, and God bless.

WHO'S GOT A BEARD THAT'S LONG AND WHITE?

SANTA'S HELPER — Two-year-old Ryan Daigle of Wrentham was more than willing to help St. Nick prepare his list of toys to bring when he visits good little boys and girls on Christmas Eve. Santa took time out of his busy schedule to visit the Common last Saturday at the request of the Foxboro Jaycees, who offered hot chocolate to visitors of the jolly elf.

TIM'S TURN

The Jaycees/Human Services Auction was a success despite tough economic times and riveting news from the Gulf War. Although the nation's attention has quickly shifted to the Middle East, this year's auction demonstrated that the people of Foxborough and surrounding towns will not forget their neighbors. We all owe a thank-you to the volunteers who made this event work; Jaycees, Human Services, Cable Access, and people from the community at large. Special thanks to Peter St. Laurent for organizing the Jaycee effort.

Be sure to review this month's Wise Fox for upcoming projects including the Pancake Breakfast. The Second Grade Basketball Clinic is in need of a chairman. This project runs at the end of the basketball season (March/April) and is a load of fun. Alternating between the Burrell and Taylor schools on Tuesday and Thursday night, you and your coaches will introduce second graders to basic basketball skills. With the help of the coaches this project nearly runs itself. It is a great first project for new members. Skills with children are more important than basketball skills since anyone over 5 feet tall looks like a star to the kids! Contact Fred Badger for more information.

Attendance at last month's GM was much better than expected when you consider we were competing with President Bush. The February GM will feature a wine tasting and a discussion with local organizers of the Neighborhood Crime Watch concept. Come early if you want a good seat. You can spend the extra minutes congratulating Fred Badger for his success with the Christmas Tree Sale and December Jaycee of the Month Terry Tomasello.

Yours in Jaycees,

V COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT(continued)

C) Nativity Scene, final report-B.Webster: The breakdown of the Nativity Scene may have broken a new record. Ther was so much good help that we had it taken down and packed away in the old chool building in just a little over an hour! Pat Wasburn and Tony DiBona continued the project with an hour of sheet rocking in Bobs' kitchen! Thanks, guys!!

D) T.V. Auction, Jan20-P.St.Laurent: THe hours of the auction are 2-7 on Sunday. Peter sent around a manpower sign up. The main job for Jaycees will be "lugging and tugging". We will be in charge of moving sale items on and off the stage as well as helping the cable people with their set up and breakdown.

E) Sand for Seniors-P.St.Laurent: Peter reports that he has 10 more buckets to deliver. Some members have donated buckets to help the cause. If the weather holds up for a couple of days, he will be all caught up.

F) Pancake Breakfast-T.Sawran: Tom sent around a sign up sheet to form a committee that will be meeting soon. Anyone with suggestions about how to make the serving run smoother should feel free to talk to Tom about it, or join his committee.

G) 2nd Grade Basketball Clinc-chairman needed. This will start during the last week of March. John Zarrella has all the information from last year to help you get started.

H) Celebrity Roast-S.Shepardson: This might not be happening due to problems with the Lakeview Pavillion. Also, the problems in the Middle East might postpone the Jazz Band trip.

VI WAYS & MEANS

A) Christmas Tree Sale, final report:F.Badger: Fred reports that 171 trees were sold. He thanked his committee and everyone who came out for the project.

B) Sled Sale-T.Sawran: Tom reports that he wishes he never brought this one up!! THE rest of the sleds were in the back of his truck for the taking. Some members were still interested in buying them for their kids, and it was suggested that they could be used at a future family sledding party.

C) Placemats-chairman needed: Jane Webster handled this project last year. She has samples of last years mat and could offer valuabe advice on how to handle this. This is a good project for one person and there is potential for a pretty decent profit.

D) Fouders Day BBQ-B.Webster: No news yet.

E) Founder's Day Hot Dogs-T.Sawran: In addition to the usual Chicken dinner we serve, Tom will be handling a hot dog cart throughout the day.

F)Founders Day Glow Items-Paul Howard, who serves as our liason to the Founder's Day Committee, informed us the they had inquired as to whether the Jaycees would be selling glow items at the fireworks. Tom Sawran worked this project last year, and could have sold many more with some manpower. If we decide to sell them again, we will be the only ones allowed to do so. After a discussion, it was decided that we would definitely be selling them this year. Sue Kennedy said she might be interested. More to come at future meetings.

Paul Howard also brought with him samples of the Founder's Day sweatshirts and t-shirts. They come in all sizes and several different colors. The have multi-colored fireworks on the front. Paul had order forms and will be takink orders after the meeting.

I INTRODUCTION

There was a short presentation given by Tim and the four vice-presidents, talking about the Jaycees for prospective new members.

II SECRETARY REPORT

All mail was picked up and delivered. Last month GM minutes were recorded and printed in the Wise Fox. A Christmas card was sent to the Foxboro Reporter staff, thanking them for their support throughout the year.

III TREASURER REPORT

The Treasurer was not present at the meeting.

IV INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT - S. Smith

A) Volleyball, Mondays 7-9 pm-B. Smith: Volleyball has been going fairly well. 8-10 people have been showing up. Remember that this is open to all. the cost is $5.

B) White Water Rafting-P. St. Laurent: Peter sent around a flyer detailing the event. The tentative date is May, 1991. The cost is $215. per person. This includes overnight accommodations. With a minimum of fifteen people, they will pick us up at an allotted spot and bus us there for free. Call Peter if interested.

C) Scat Night, Jan. 12th-Shepardsons: Eight people risked death on the icy slope that Glenn calls his front yard. There were no serious injuries and a good time was had by all!

D) JC Week, Jan, 21-27-chairman needed: This is a time to push Jaycee awareness in the community. This is a one person project, and usually consists of an ad in the Reporter telling something about what we do.

E) Ski Trip: This will be taking place Jan. 29-Feb. 3, 1991. There are still a few slots open. If interested contact Paul Kelly.

F) Installation Banquet-K. Badger: Kathy has reserved the Best Western in Norwood. The date is Saturday May 11. She will be needing a Disc Jockey and someone who is willing to be the Master of ceremonies.

G) 30th Anniversary Banquet: This just can't seem to get off the ground. There was some discussion of combining it with the Installation Banquet. More to come?

H) Progressive Dinner, final report- K. Mordaunt/S. Smith: There were 40 people attending this annual favorite. Sandy reports that there were a few associates who came out this year, which made the night even more fun.

V COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT - F. Badger

A) Santa on the Common, final report-T. Tomasello: Considering the rotten weather, this was a pretty good project. Many gifts and donations were collected. The kids that came out seemed to enjoy meeting with Santa! Good work Terri!

B) Santa Phone, final report-G. Wilhelm: Gordie was not at the meeting, but I know that Santas' call was a big hit at our house!

E) Founders Day Hot Dogs-T.Sawran: The original idea of a portable Hot Dog cart is not what the Founders' Day Committee had in mind for us. They wanted us to stick to the area that our Barbecue will be taking place, Tom will have to look into this further.

F) Founders Day Glow Items-F.Badger: No news yet.

VII MEMBERSHIP - B. Webster

A) New Members BBQ, final report-Kennedys: Sue reports that the builder of their house came the next day to examine the deck that was destroyed by too many large Jaycees standing on it. It will be fixed for free. Other than the deck collapse the party was a big success!!

B) Welcome Wagon Brochure-E.Fullerton: Elaine passed around the new brochure. It was well received most all. The brochure will also serve as an all purpose brochure or for mailings, etc.

C) New Members Handbook-M.Marshall: Mary had copies of her new information packet. It is very informative, with lots of basic information. Now we need some new members to give it to!!!

D) Membership Booth-G.Shepardson: Glenn had three people fill out applications at the pancake breakfast. He will be following up on them and trying to get them out to a meeting.

VIII OLD BUSINESS

IX NEW BUSINESS

A) Region Meeting, April 24

B) State Boards/Elections, May 17-18: This will be at the Sheraton Boxborough this year.

INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT REPORT
FEBRUARY

1. Volleyball - Brian Smith - There have been enough people coming on Mondays to cover the cost of the gym rental but Brian invites anyone who wishes to play to join the group. Give him a call for details if interested.
2. Whitewater Rafting - Peter St, Laurent - This project will not run unless we can get enough interest. It doesn't look good for now with only six people . This would be a lot of fun !!! Anyone interested should talk to Peter soon. A date won't be set until we know who's interested. There are people signed up to go singul so don't be shy.
3. JC WEEK AD - Elaine Fullerton has volunteered to place an ad in the Foxboro Reporter in tradition with JC Week. If anyone would like any input please give Elaine a call.
4. SKI TRIP- Paul Kelly - A great time was had by all!!!! Paul had a group of about 35 people staying at the Morgansleben Lodge that included some never seen JC's like Jerry Ivarone, Vinny Gallivan and Bob Street. If you ski and you missed this event it was a true shame. Plans are all ready underway for next year.
5. Installation Banquet - Kathy Badger - Kathy has reserved The Best Western Conference Center in Norwood for MAY 11th. Please put that date on your calendars. There will be dinner, awards and dancing. This is the night to celebrate the year's success so it's always a lot of fun. Kathy will be looking for a few members to help her with some of the details. This is a great way to become activated for any new members. Give Kathy a call if interested. If not, don't be surprised to hear from us.
6. 30th Anniversary Banquet - Glenn Shepardson - This project was almost scrapped for lack of interest but suddenly a number of people have been talking about this. Glenn has a number of volunteers for a committee but would take a few more if interested. We plan on doing this in November but will begin planning as soon as the Shepardson's return from Disney World.
7. Associate Members Night - Bob Kilroy - Bob just volunteered to Chair this project. He will have something planned to honor or at least recognize our "older" members. (RFO or Really F----- Old) The festivities are planned for the March GM.
8. INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM - Sandy Smith - It has come to my attention that we have not had any projects in my area that would promote personal growth other than social skills. I am working on setting up a CPR Course which will be discussed at the next GM. In addition there are a number of other ideas such as Public Speaking (since it was so very hard to come up with volunteers to speak on our behalf at the cable auction) and How to Start A Small Business. If anyone would like to help plan some of these education programs or any others that they have in mind, please talk to me.

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

Sandy Smith

VII MEMBERSHIP - B. Webster

- A) Membership Drive: Bob reports that his committee has been building towards this meeting with phone calls and mailings and an ad in the Reporter. Weather caused the cancelation of last weeks GM and the war in the Middle East has caused a small turnout for tonight. We have three prospective new members here tonight and hope to have several more at the February GM. Bob thanked his committee for all of their efforts.
- B) Membership Contest: We need members to give referrals. Any referral that becomes a member will count towards a prize or prizes to be given at the Installation Banquet. At this time, Alan Cohen, our State District Director, told us of a State JC membership drive. If any chapter can sign up 20 new members between now and the end of our year (April), the chapter will be given $400.00 to be used towards a Community Development project. The State will donate $750.00 towards a CD project if we can add 30 new members.
- C) Welcome Wagon: Bob reports that Jane Webster has made contact with the local Welcome Wagon. Being a non-profit organization, we can get into Welcome Wagon free of charge. The committee will be working on a brochure.

VIII OLD BUSINESS

Sandy Smith raised the question as to the whereabouts of the sweatshirt she earned for working so hard at the Haunted House. Tim said he would look into it.

IX NEW BUSINESS

- A) Recycling: John Zarrella reports that Foxboro will be getting into "curbside recycling" in June. He would like us to be involved in some capacity. After much discussion, a motion was passed to give John a $15. fact finder so he could gather more information on this subject.
- B) Safe House fact finder: Glenn Shepardson told of local plans to set up a "safe house" that the local police could use for children whose families have been involved in domestic disputes. It turns out that Foxboro Human Services is going to handle this project.
- C) Jayceens: Alan Cohen reports that the State is interested in getting High School kids to form their own group, similar to the Jaycees, that would serve the community. Anyone interested in getting involved in this should contact Tim.

X JC OF THE MONTH

Terri Tomasello for her fine work on Santa on the Common. Tim also presented a long forgotten JC of the month to Bob Webster (from last June!!!!)

XI FROG OF THE MONTH

Nominated were Tim for his lighting expertise on the bandstand, Jack Tomasello for soap suds in the hot cocoa, and Jane Webster for some progressive dinner antics. The winner(?) is Susan O'Sullivan. Susan sold herself a Christmas tree that was so off balance it could not be mounted in a stand. She was forced to throw it away and purchase a second one. Hopefully Paul helped her select the next one!!

XIII REMARKS

XIV CREED

XV ADJOURNMENT

available newspaper, cable, television, and other local resources that can be used for publicity.

- 1) Assist project publicity persons with publicizing their projects
- 2) Maintain and update a list of local resources used for publicity
- 3) Arranges for photographs or slides to be taken at chapter projects and socials for use in visual displays during Jaycee week, membership drives, and other events
- 4) Publish announcement of GM meetings in local paper

MEETINGS AND PROGRAMS DIRECTOR:

The meetings and Programs Director is responsible for overall success of General Membership meetings.

- 1) Arrives at meeting place approximately ½ hour before scheduled meeting to set up chairs, tables, and refreshments
- 2) Plans and purchases beverages to be sold at the meetings. Prices are set to recover expenses.
- 3) Organize availability of food/refreshments through member volunteering to contribute refreshments
- 4) Organize, contact, and arrange guest speakers for the GM with the assistance of the IDVP
- 5) Keep keys for meeting place and define other location if need arises
- 6) Maintains beverage container returns and proceeds from sale to insure availability of future purchases
- 7) Cleans up meeting place and return facility to its former condition prior to the beginning of the meeting

WISE FOX EDITOR:

The Wise Fox Editor is responsible for publishing the chapter newsletter every month.

- 1) Collect monthly articles from board members including President's report, minutes from previous GM, reports from VPs, announcements of coming events, newspaper articles, ads, and pictures that may be of interest to the general membership
- 2) Compile all the above mentioned material into an 8½ x 11" newsletter but cutting and pasting various items together, shrinking or enlarging, and applying them in page by page format
- 3) Keeps and maintains current membership list and/or mailing list on label printing disc
- 4) Deliver the original copy to Mr. Vin Igo, 10 Cocasset Street Foxboro for printing at the Foxboro Company. Vin's home phone number is 543-5542. Once the WISE FOX has been printed, Mr. Igo delivers them back to the Editor of the Fox.
- 5) Address newsletter by hand or with printed mailing labels and stamps purchased by chapter
- 6) Mails the newsletter AT LEAST one week prior to the next
- 7) Maintain a library of past and current issues
- 8) Places current copies of FOX at Boyden Library and takes copies out

DIRECTOR:

A Director is also an underestimated position on the board because he/she performs many duties and is not responsible for just one area (i.e., CD, VP, Membership, etc.)

- 1) Attend all GM and board meetings
- 2) Assist in membership activation/growth
- 3) Act as a liason between general membership and board and contribute the GM's opinions and concerns to keep open lines between each other
- 4) Perform specific duties as assigned by the President
- 5) Assist variuos VP's as consultant and manpower

Being a director is particularly beneficial to a new member as it offers first hand experience with the board and can be a learning experience for any member. Participating on the board can also give you a look at the opportunities available to you in other positions in advance

WAYS & MEANS VICE PRESIDENT:

The Ways & Means Vice President is responsible for defining and coordinating chapter or community fundraising projects.

- 1) Attend all GM and board meetings
- 2) Assist in membership activation/growth
- 3) Oversee various W&M projects
- 4) Develop new ideas for W&M projects

It is ideal for each board member to minimize committing themselves to chairing projects. The general membership should be utilized to it's full capacity. No project should be run just for the sake of "tradition" if the interest is not there. Let it go. It is better to not run the project than it is to run it alone.

I hope all of you reading these descriptions find at least one position that interest you. We have a great amount of members to assist you and have a lot of experienced Jaycees in our chapter to offer guidance. You'll be suprised how rewarding it is. I cannot beleive the year is almost over. Let's keep the ball rolling.

Remember Me.....

Many of you remember Tim and Cindy Carberry who were both very active in the Foxboro Jaycees. After waiting 12 years on a kidney donor list, Tim and Cindy decided to move to Florida to be closer to family. Nearly 3 weeks after moving to Florida, Tim had a kidney transplant just after starting a new job the day before. Unfortunately, Tim rejected the kidney just a few days later. Since then, he has been laid off from work and is undergoing dialysis again. Both Tim and Cindy would love to hear from some of you "older members" to keep them up with your life. Please write them:

When they wish upon a star dreams of charity come true

By Evie Malm

The annual Jaycees/Foxboro Human Services auction marks its third year on Jan. 21, when the klieg lights illuminate what has become an annual event. And for the third year, both Glenn and Sandy Shepardson will be playing a strong role behind the scenes helping to make the auction a success.

Glenn's role for the past two years was a "pickup and pay" person. He and his wife would greet and collect money from successful bidders. Sandy spent her time behind the cash register collecting the money while Glenn hunted down the items.

This year things are a little different. Sandy will still be taking in money, but as recently elected treasurer of the Jaycees, she will be handling more responsibility. Glenn has been coordinating publicity for the auction. This has involved making sure all newspapers, radio and TV stations receive press releases and following up to make sure stories are done to promote the big event. Although his job is basically over the day of the auction, he is a firm believer in helping others; Glenn will become a "lug and tug" person on the auction team.

A past president of the Jaycees who has many plaques honoring his service to the community, Glenn never stops giving of his time and energy. As "townees" who started dating in the seventh grade, both Sandy and Glenn care about Foxboro. Both say the community has changed and in their eyes is "not quite as close-knit as it used to be." But both agree that through Jaycees they have met many newcomers to the community who have become their friends.

The first years Glenn was in Jaycees, Sandy worked behind the scenes. However, after "he bugged me for four years" she decided to join and recently became the treasurer of the organization. And when the items go up for bids you can be assured if there is anything to do with Mickey Mouse or Disney World, Sandy will be putting in a bid. She is an avid Mickey Mouse fan, which anyone would know minute they walked into home. The curio cabinet corner is filled with Disney actors. The top of the holds a castle that lights up.

She is not alone. Her brother, Whitney Mitchell, of Foxboro, is just as much a Disney freak. In fact, the weekend Sandy threw a Mickey Mouse party for her birthday. Everything from invitations sent out to the streamers, plates and birthday cake had a Mickey Mouse theme.

It was Whitney who first nudged Sandy visit Disney. Finally in 1986, after he usually nagged her, she agreed to go. She was hooked. Now she becomes a regular event and the family, and she each trip she sees something she didn't see the last time.

The Shepardsons and their children, Glenn Jr., 11, and Cory, 9, along with other families are on the trek to Florida by Sandy and Glenn say the trip is a "good bonding" time. They take games, and book snacks and spend much time talking as a family.

This year the family joined by some other friends the visit will take on another dimension. What could be the best present a husband could give his wife who has "ever" when it comes to Disney? Being the grand marshal of the parade, of course they scheduled their trip to coincide with the parade. He wrote ahead to find out if it would be possible to honor his birthday, which will take place while they are there. The folks wrote back telling him it would be the grand marshal's honor.

But before all that happens this duo will be working behind the auction. The fund raising is especially crucial this year, say, to ensure the continuation of programs which at times have been granted but could be cut by government cutbacks.

And you can be assured though Sandy is a Mickey Mouse freak, the contribution she and Glenn make to the community could never be labeled a "mouse operation."

FIREWORKS FOR FOUNDERS DAY

BURSTING WITH PRIDE . . . and color . . . are Paul and Debbie Howard of Rockhill Street who, together with sons Matthew (left, age 9) and P.J. (age 6), were happy to model the new Founders Day '91 sweatshirts recently. The sweatshirts and tee-shirts feature a dazzling fireworks display and are available in black, royal blue or jade. The shirts can be purchased at Memorial Hall on Wednesday nights from 7 to 9 p.m. or by calling Karen Mordaunt (543-3694) or Ginny Coppola (543-9243). (Photo by Mike Dodge)

Cable volunteers honored

Seed money to ensure scholarship will be maintained

Some viewers may take for granted those volunteers who produce Foxboro Cable Access shows and run the cameras at school athletic games, plays, concerts and countless governmental meetings.

But the organization does not take its volunteers for granted, and host of them were honored during the FCA annual meeting and awards ceremony Saturday night.

Highlighting the evening, a scholarship program and an arts enrichment fund were formally established.

FCA traditionally awards a $1,000 scholarship each year to a Foxboro High School graduate planning to major in communication, but this year $25,000 in seed money will insure that the scholarship is permanent, said Malcolm Beaverstock, chairman of the board and president of FCA.

The interest on a $20,000 fund established Saturday will aid various arts projects in Foxboro.

The goal of the FCA enrichment fund is to subsidize a project or performance by individuals or organizations for the enrichment of the local community.

Guidelines and applications will be available in mid-February at the Town Hall or at the FCA office at 131 Main St.

Applications are to be returned by March 31 in person or mailed to FCA, Box 524, Foxboro. Interviews will follow and the awards will be announced in May. (Call FCA at 543-4757 with any questions.)

The annual meeting Saturday was organized by Marge Nash and dedicated to her son, former FCA volunteer/producer Jon Oliver Nash, and to the other U.S. servicemen and women engaged in the war in the Middle East. A Navy Petty Officer 3rd class, Nash is currently serving aboard the carrier USS Saratoga.

FCA is a non-profit organization staffed by volunteers.

Marc Altman, a 1989 graduate of Foxboro High School, and William Grieder, treasurer and cameraman, were named volunteers of the year.

Grieder was also named director of the year for his work on the fourth annual Foxboro Jaycees/Human Services cable auction last week.

Beaverstock was named producer of the year for his production of numerous athletic games and school plays and music performances.

Other award winners in various categories were: Michael Coppola, Mark Linde, Dean Toepfer, Dick Legge, Frank MacDow, Bob Rossetti, the FCA video club, Paul Beck, Bill Milhomme, Greg Carter, David Gulya, Jack Authalet, Jim Swift and Linda Roop.

"It was an upbeat night for everyone, a night to thank them for their efforts," Beaverstock said.

The meeting also set the 1991 FCA budget of $84,000, which comes through a grant from Massachusetts Cablevision in keeping with its contractual obligation to provide 5 percent of its revenue to the local access organization.

Another auction success

Tough sell against Gulf war, football

From pet neutering to shrub fertilization, from stained glass to unstaining silverware, from a plane ride to a bird seed bucket, nearly 200 items or services were purchased Sunday during the televised fourth annual Foxboro Jaycees/Human Services auction.

While competing for viewers with war news and football playoffs, the auction reaped about $8,800, according to chairman Rita Martin.

Most of the money goes to Foxboro Human Services, with the Jaycees giving their share to the Discretionary Fund, a year-round private source of emergency relief for local residents.

As of last Thursday, individuals and businesses had donated 164 goods or services with a retail value of $13,000, according to Glenn Shepardson, Jaycees chairman of the board.

The items, still coming through Saturday, were sold at the Ahern Middle School in a cable TV auction reaching 17 area communities. Buyers phoned in their bids in a manner reminiscent of the better-known Channel 2 auction.

"Between the football games and the bombing in the Middle East, we did very well," said Martin, adding that the poor economy was another obstacle.

Martin, serving as chairman for the second consecutive year, said the high number of items donated helped keep this year's earnings on a par with last year's $9,600 net.

The event was planned for months.

About 150 volunteers participated, manning phones, running the cable TV system, handling goods, and serving as auctioneers.

The set was erected at the Ahern School on Saturday and cable volunteer Marcus Moore slept overnight in the cable access van to prevent vandalism or theft.

Event during the auction, current events never strayed far from the minds of participants, and frequently during the afternoon volunteers stole a few moments from the action to watch a television tuned to war coverage in an adjacent room.

Police Chief Edward O'Leary led a group of auctioneers that included Chris Ienello, Margaret Roberts, Tim Fraumann of Foxboro Rotary, Town Clerk Marie Crimmins, Supt. of Schools Dean Toepfer, Ahern principal Calvin Meeker, Taylor principal Joe Desrosiers, Fire Chief Hobart Boswell, Foxboro Human Services Chairman Dianne Weinfeld, Selectman Chairman Michael Coppola, Sen. William Keating, coach Jack Martinelli, school music director Steve Massey, and Foxboro Reporter editor Jeffrey Peterson.

The auctioneers gave a brief description of the item along with its retail value, and bids were recorded on one of four boards as calls came in. Buyers picked up the items right away at the school or later in the week at the Foxboro Human Services office on Chestnut Street.

IT'S AUCTION TIME AGAIN!

Donations still sought for Jan. 20 cable TV auction

Time is winding down until Jan. 20, when the third annual Foxboro Jaycees/Human Services auction will be broadcast live from the Ahern School auditorium.

The auction, which will resemble the well-known Channel 2 Auction, will be broadcast on cable channel 11 from 2 to 7 p.m.

Proceeds from items auctioned off will be used to maintain programs provided by Foxboro Human Services, including Alzheimers support groups, drug and alcohol counseling for individuals and families and adult day-care.

Operation Reassurance is also coordinated through the human services agency. This program is a phone support network utilizing volunteers to make daily phone checks on elderly residents living alone.

The Foxboro Jaycees donate their share of earnings to the Foxboro Discretionary Fund.

Auction programmers are still seeking items to put on the block for the Jan. 20 spectacular. Items donated for auction must be submitted no later than Jan. 19.

For more information contact Foxboro Human Services at 543-7336.

Wednesday 9

Jaycees membership

On Wednesday, Jan. 9, the boro Jaycees are inviting an interested in Jaycee members an informal get-together to discuss the aims, goals and contributions the Jaycees to the community. The discussion will begin at 7:15 p.m. prior to the general membership meeting at 8 p.m. Light refreshments will be served. All are welcome.

After some eight hours of work and the cleanup completed, most of the volunteers stayed for a catered turkey dinner.

The handful of items still not spoken for were then auctioned off among the volunteers, further swelling the tally.

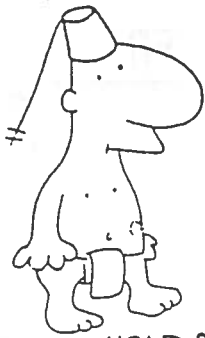

Shepardson said the event was advertised on Cable News Network (CNN), whose intensively-watched coverage of the war in the Persian Gulf coincidentally informed more viewers of the auction.

A six-foot by eight-foot storage shed donated by Dick Davis Builders drew the highest bid of the day, bringing in $700.

"It was wonderful," Martin said of the auction. "Our volunteers keep coming back and we had a wonderful time. Anything we get is more than we had before, so we're very happy."

TIM'S TURN

Thank you Fred Badger for inviting Det. Kurt Ludwig and Steve Vermette to speak about the Neighborhood Crime Watch program at the February GM. We can expect more chapter involvement in this area in the future based on the high level of interest demonstrated at the meeting.

Thank you Sandy Smith for an informative yet fun presentation by the folks of the Nashoba Valley Winery. It was interesting to learn there are genuine alternatives to grape based wine.

Congratulations to Brian Smith and his regulars for making Volleyball the Project of the Month for January. For those of you who want to see what it's all about, just stop at the Igo building gym Monday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00.

Coming attractions include, among others, the annual Pancake Breakfast on March 24, the 2nd Grade Basketball Clinic beginning March 19, Candidates' Night to be scheduled, the annual Associates Night GM, a C.P.R. course April 1 & 8, the New Members' BBQ April 6, and white water rafting. Additional details can be found in this issue.

Yours in Jaycees,

13 FEBRUARY 1991

I INTRODUCTION

II SECRETARY REPORT-B. Webster

All mail picked up and delivered. Last month GM minutes have been recorded and printed in the Wise Fox.

III TREASURER REPORT-S. Shepardson

A print-out of our financial status was passed around. There was a listing of $200. for "b-ball shirts" that nobody had any information about. It will be looked into. If the shirts cannot be accounted for, they will be dropped from the books.

IV INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT-S. Smith

A) Ski Trip, final report: There were 36 staying at the lodge and some good skiing at Sunday River.

B) Installation Banquet, May 11- K.Badger: Kathy reports that the deposit has been made. Mark Moore has volunteered to supply us with a DJ. The estimated cost will be about $18-$19 per person. A person willing to be the MC for the evening is still needed.

C) 30th Anniversary Banquet- G.Shepardson: This is planned for November. A committee needs to be formed. Glen would like to involve the last 29 presidents. It sounds like a party with a lot of potential! Anyone interested in being involved with the planning should contact Glen.

D) Volleyball-B.Smith: Volleyball continues on Monday evenings at the Igo Gym, from 7-9pm. All are welcome.

E) Associates Night, March GM- chairman needed: Bob Kilroy has agreed to take this on. This a night when some of the associates get "roasted". It is always alot of fun!

F) Spouse Appreciation Brunch, chairman needed

G) Nominations Committee- G.Shepardson: The current Chairman of the Board, the Treasurer, and a member at large (Glen, Sandy, and Chris Nametz) form a committee to find people interested in filling the Board positions for next JC year. The nominations will take place next month and elections in April. There are still openings. Anyone interested should contact Glen.

H) New ID Projects- S.Smith: Sandy reports that it has been mentioned that there aren't many self-improvement projects going on this year. She and Sue Kennedy are going to be organizing a CPR Course next month for anyone interested. Also if anyone has any other ideas for other Individual Development Type projects, please contact Sandy.

I) JC T-Shirts- J.Zarrella: Mr. Z. is back on the scene with those fabulous JC Tee Shirts. The cost is only $5.00!!! When we are out on big manpower projects, like the Pancake Breakfast and Founders' Day BBQ., it is very impressive for us all to be showing our "colors".

V COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT-F. Badger

A) T.V.Auction-P.St.Laurent: Peter reports that the auction pulled in $8500.00. The luggers and tuggers that the Jaycees provided did an admirable job.

B) Sand for Seniors-P.St.Laurent: The good weather has allowed for a lot of catching up. 70 Seniors have buckets so far this season.

- C) Pancake Breakfast- T.Sawran: Tom reports that he and his committee are moving along. All the tickets have been handed out to the CYO kids. Food sources and prices are being checked on. We will have three of our own droppers this year.(hooray!) They have been talking about the possibility of having some JC members distribute tickets after the kids turn theirs back in. It would require a half day of standing by the Post Office, soliciting ticket sales. Tom feels that this might be a good way to generate more pre-event ticket sales. Anyone willing to help out should contact Tom.
- D) 2nd Grade Basketball Clinic- Sawran/Webster: Tom and Bob are splitting this project, with Bob handling the Taylor School and Tom the Burrell. They will need coaches for five Tuesdays and Thursdays starting the last two weeks of March.
- E) Celebrity Roast-S. Shepardson: This roast of Vin Igo has been put off until September.
- F) High School Scholarship: There was a recent inquiry into the wording of our High School Scholarship. The question is whether or not Foxboro Seniors that attend other schools are eligible. There was much discussion and it was decided that Fred would look into the situation. He will contact the guidance department to see about possible logistics.
- G) Recycling Fact Finder-J.Zarrella: John reports that the town has put the program on the back burner due to budget problems.
- H) Desert Storm?: Lauren Bitar is looking into having the Jaycees run a collection program to send goods to the troops in the Middle East.
- I) Crime Watch: Steve Vermette(Boston Police) and Curt Ludwig(Foxboro Police) gave us a presentation about the Crime Watch program. The program revolves around neighborhood awareness and keeping an eye out at all times. The Police would like to get us involved in organizing a local program. Curt Ludwig offered some rather sobering Foxboro statistics: 8-10 house breaks/month, 15-25 acts of vandalism/month, and about 15 car breaks a month. For more information contact Fred Badger.
- J) Candidates Night- chairman needed: Anyone interested in organizing an evening when the local candidates can speak should contact Fred.
- K) Senior Move: Peter St.Laurent was called by a resident of Annon Court to see if the Jaycees would be able to help her move from one apartment to another one(down a floor). Peter gathered some volunteers from the meeting.

VI WAYS & MEANS- K.Mordaunt

- A) Placemats-M.Moore: Mark is selling advertising space that will appear on the Pancake Breakfast Placemat. Mark reports that he has contacted 37 local businesses and received 16 tentative okays. He has collected two check already and hopes to finish collecting next week.
- B) Founders' Day BBQ, June 8-B.Webster: No news yet.
- C) Founders' Day Hot Dogs- T.Sawran: No news yet.
- D) Founders' Day Glow Items-F.Badger: " " "
- E) Stadium Clean-Up: Karen Apgar told us about a Stadium project involving a crew of people that clean up after events. The money to be made on this sounds very good. Karen was given a $15. fact finder to look into this a little further.

- VII MEMBERSHIP-B. Webster
- A) Membership Drive: Bob reports that the membership has stalled a little lately, although the committee is still working hard at it. We were expecting to see more prospective new members tonight. Betty Vermette has signed up tonight in absentia. Her husband Steve (from the crimewatch program) filed an application for her and we hope to get her active real soon!!
- B) Dues: Tim reports that many members are very late on their dues. Come guys!! It's only $23.00!!!
- C) New Members' Barbecue- chairman needed
- D) Welcome Wagon Brochure-E.Fullerton: Elaine is working on a tri-fold brochure that gives an overview of the Jaycees. This brochure will be handed out to new home buyers in the Welcome Wagon Basket.

- VII OLD BUSINESS
- A) Insurance: We have somehow let our Insurance lapse. It seems as though it was a problem with our agent. The High School is requiring that we can prove that we have certain minimum coverages before they let us have the Pancake Breakfast there. Also, volleyball would be at risk in the Igo Gym. A motion was passed which would allow Tim to sign up with whatever insurance program that he chooses as soon as possible.

- IX NEW BUSINESS
- A) Museum of Discovery: The Museum is setting up in the first floor of one of the State Hospital buildings. They have asked us if we would be able to provide them with some manpower to help put the building into order.
- B) Human Services: The Alzhiemers Support Group Needs to find someone to donate a piano to them. They would like to get the Jaycees to help with the subsequent moving.
- *WINE TASTING*

At this point in the meeting, a representative of the Nashoba Valley Winery presented a slide show and an informative talk about their wine making. Following the presentation we tasted several fruit based wines. We tried an apple, pear, blueberry, and cranberry-apple wine. Everyone had their own favorite.

INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT REPORT

MARCH

1. INSTALLATION BANQUET - K. Badger

Kathy has set the date as MAY 11, 1991 for this year Banquet. It will be held at the Best Western in Norwood and will include dinner and dancing to a D.J.

2. VOLLEYBALL - B. Smith

Brian reports that enough people have been showing up to cover costs but anyone is always welcome. They play on Monday nights from 7-9 at the Vin Igo building.

3. Associates Night - B. Kilroy / S. Smith

See last page of this Wise Fox for details.

4. Spouse Appreciation Brunch - chairperson needed

Traditionally, we have gone to Brunch on a Spring Sunday - anyone interested in organizing this year's project should see me. (This will not appear again if no interest is shown.)

5. Nominations Committee - G. Shepardson

Glenn reports that the committee has many people interested in key positions but that there is space for anyone interested in a position on next year's board. This is the best way to get involved!!! Call Glenn.

6. CPR Certification - S. Kennedy / S. Smith

There will be two classes, April 1st and 8th from 7-10pm held at the Kennedy Donovan Center for anyone interested in learning this life saving technique. Call Sue Kennedy if interested. There will be a small charge ($5 or under).

7. 30th Anniversary Banquet - G. Shepardson

The committee will meet this month. A tentative date is in November. Anyone interested in helping plan this should contact Glenn.

8. Jr. Softball - Chairman needed to set up a schedule with other area chapters to play a few informal games.

Sorry for the handwritten report but the typewriter ribbon broke at 10PM the night before the press deadline. - Sandra Smith

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

1. Human Services/Jaycees Auction - P. St. Laurent
The auction was held on January 20th. Thanks to Bob Webster for filling in for Tim and doing a 'live' spot promoting the Jaycees. (He's still shaking.) Although not as profitable as past auctions, a good amount of money was raised for Human Services. Thanks to everyone who helped lug and tug.
2. Sand for Seniors - P. St. Laurent
...and on it goes.
3. Pancake Breakfast - T. Sawran
The first committee meeting was held on January 21st. Tom has done a lot of work already, including booking the school, reserving the griddles and ordering the tickets. Another meeting is planned for February 4th when the tickets will be prepared for distribution.
4. Second Grade Basketball Clinic - B. Webster/T. Sawran
Bob and Tom are co-chairing due to the fact that each one has a second grader in the Taylor and Burrell schools, respectively. They will be looking for coaches, so if you can spare one night a week for a few weeks, please contact Bob or Tom.

ATTENTION RESPECTED AND REVERED WELL-HEELED PREPARERS OF EARLY MORNING CULINARY DELICACIES -

YO PANCAKE BREAKFAST WORKERS

This year's breakfast will be on March 24th so starch your aprons and dust off your flippers! This is one of those great projects that not only benefits our community but also gives us the opportunity to catch up with old friends and to have new members and old members become acquainted.

Manpower calls will start in late February or early March - When you get your call, please, JUST SAY YES!

In the meantime, anyone with improvement suggestions, don't hesitate to give me a call, now, while we have a chance to act and use your ideas.

See you all on the 24th!

MEMBERSHIP REPORT

1. MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

I would like to thank the people on the membership committee for all their help this last month and a half. The committee includes Lauren Bitar, Mary Marshall, Glenn Shepardson, Jane Webster and myself. Since our first meeting in early December, we have put together a Jaycee information letter, made many phone calls, advertised in the Reporter, and generally geared up for the January GM. What we did not foresee was Ice Storm one Wednesday followed by Desert Storm the next! We didn't have the turn-out that we had been hoping for, but we do have more interested people coming out for the February GM. Three prospective new members came to the Jan. meeting and all joined at the end of the meeting. A big Jaycee welcome to MIKE MOTTA, KAREN APGAR, and TOM LUCCI!!! Thanks also go to John Zarrella and Tony DiBona for taking the time to help with the membership calling.

2. MEMBERSHIP CONTEST

Remember that our best source of new members is referrals from our current members. I have not gotten anywhere near the response that I was hoping for from you guys!! Everyone has to know a few people that might be interested in the things that we do. Keep in mind that you don't have to "bug" them about it. The membership committee will do that for you! Also, there will be prizes at the Installation Banquet for most referrals that become members. The State Jaycees are also offering $$$ incentives to chapters that can sign 20 or 30 new members by April. That seems like a very big number, but if we signed one new member for every two or three current members we'd have it and then some!

3. FUTURE AGENDA

Some of the things that we will be discussing at the next membership meeting: A Welcome Wagon Brochure, a possible new member information package, membership activity at the Pancake Breakfast. If anyone has any ideas or new concepts, we would be happy to hear from you!!

4. **NEW MEMBER BARBECUE**      **CHAIRMAN NEEDED**

We need some one to host the New Members' Barbecue this year. Although the date has yet to be set, it will probably be in early April, right after the Pancake Breakfast. This is a real nice social event for new members as well as "old". (the rule of thumb is that you are a new member until you've been to a new member barbecue) Last year, Brian and Sandy Smith hosted for over sixty people. It was a great time!!

If you want to "chair" this project, you won't have to do it all on your own. You can form your own committee or the membership committee would be happy to help with the organizing. The Jaycees cover the expenses and will supply manpower needed for set-up, etc. If anyone is at all interested, please give me a call or speak up at the next GM.

Got a lobster bake for 75 planned?
Get ready to bid.

Foxboro Jaycees and Foxboro Human Services are sharing the gavel for the fourth consecutive year next month when a bounty of community donations goes on the auction block to raise $15,000 for community services.

The auction offers a staggering array of items from the practical smoke detectors and extinguishers courtesy of the town fire department to the evenings on the town, the airplane ride out of Mansfield Airport, and the rental of a cooker large enough to bake up 75 lobsters.

Raising $15,000 will mean Foxboro Human Services "can get through to the end of the fiscal year feeling good," said McKenney, the agency director. The fiscal year ends June 30.

This fourth annual cable auction will be broadcast on Mass Cable Vision 11 to 17 towns. They are Ashland, Bellingham, Bridgewater, Canton, Dover, Foxboro, Hopedale, Holliston, Mansfield, Medfield, Medway, Mendon, Norfolk, Seekonk, Sharon, Walpole and Wrentham.

"I think one of the nicest things is that it has become quite a community event," said McKenney.

This important fund-raiser will be held Jan. 20 from 2 to 7 p.m. The preview showing is Saturday, Jan. 19 from 1 to 5 p.m. at Ahern Middle School on Mechanic Street in Foxboro, at which time early-bird bids will be accepted. This year's theme is "We're In This Together" reflecting the need for the community and human service providers to ensure that those in need get help. Proceeds fund the human service agency

FOXBOROUGH HUMAN SERVICES

RESOURCES, INC.

and the Foxboro Discretionary Fund.

The sponsors are shooting for $15,000 and hopes the community will be as open-hearted this year as in the past. Last year about $10,000 was raised. This year state, federal and town cutbacks are pinching Foxboro enough to make residents yell "Youch."

Foxboro Human Services lends a hand to many surrounding communities, through such services as support groups for families of Alzheimer's victims, a senior day care for the elderly and counseling for adults and children who abuse drugs or alcohol.

Foxboro cable access filming will be done at no cost by the volunteer component, said McKenney.

Anyone who has already donated an item with retail value of $500 or more has won a free 30-second video-tape commercial to run during the auction. The items will be pre-taped if donors call the above number for details.

"We do this auction in collaboration with the Jaycees. When we first got the idea we knew we did not have enough bodies to do this alone. We approached the Jaycees. We take two-thirds of the profit and the Jaycees take one third, of which some is donated to the town's discretionary fund," said McKenney.

Foxboro Human Services uses its portion to fund ongoing services to residents.

"I think one of the nicest things is that it has become quite a community event. We need 100 volunteers the day of the auction. The Jaycee Women of Foxboro man the phones, and others work the boards. Quite a variety of people do the auctioneering for us. We have representatives from politicians to fire, police, school representatives — good old community people. People who think highly of our organization and want to help us," said McKenney. "We are very fortunate we have plenty of help. And people in the community are very excited about it.

The auction proceeds will augment regular funding.

"We've certainly had some cuts we're dealing with. The adult social day care has had cutbacks. And they're just not a lot of funds out there to apply for. A lot of programs have to get their own funding," said McKenney.

They'd like to raise enough money so some clients who have been cut back from three days of day care to only one can be sustained for additional days. The program, in which 23 persons are now registered, is funded by the state and federal government.

For some families, like those with a member who has Alzheimer's the day program provides respite. For others, it delays nursing home placement.

Total worth of items donated through yesterday was $4,500, said McKenney.

They include a gourmet dinner; an outdoor shed; paintings by community artists; several overnights at local inns; tickets to Great Woods and Tri-Boro theater; gift certificates to beauty salons; wrist watches; six months of basic cable service; pet neutering; pen and ink sketches of homes; gift certificates for landscaping; repair or refinishing of silverware; hand made afghans.

For two dollars, a bidder gains access to a special speed-dial number for quick bidding. Those bidders will need only provide identifying information once. After that, your password is your number.

"Most important, not only do we raise money, but it's become a great community project," said McKenney. In fact, clients to the human service agency have sometimes been attracted to services after viewing the auction, she said.

— APRIL 1991 —

Foxboro Jaycees is a member of the United States Jaycees Organization.

TIM'S TURN

It's April and the Jaycee year is nearly over. We've had a full calendar of events and we are still going strong. This month's agenda offers something for everyone. The Wise Fox gives you all the information you need to find a couple of projects of interest to you. Call the project chairperson or the area vice-President to get involved. And don't wait until tomorrow to make that call. There is never a bad time to take a telephone call from a volunteer, and if you've ever run a project you'll agree.

If you want to observe a fun project come to the Taylor and Burrell schools, on Tuesday and Thursday nights respectively, and watch the second grade basketball clinic in full swing. Thanks to co-chairmen Bob Webster and Tom Sawran. Coming soon are Candidates Night and CPR training. Remember, don't just reflect; ACT! Make that call!

The April GM is our annual election meeting so make it a point to attend. Come make your voice heard. There are many examples where one vote has made a difference.

Yours in Jaycees,

Basketball

HOOP CLINIC

The Foxboro Jaycees will run a youth basketball clinic for second graders beginning March 19. The five-week course will run from 6:30-8 p.m. on Tuesday nights at the Taylor School or Thursday nights (beginning March 21) at the Burrell School.

A registration fee of $6, payable at the first class, will include a T-shirt.

Registration letters have been sent home with the kids from the school. Any interested participants or adult volunteers who have not received letters should contact Bob Webster (Taylor) at 543-6959 or Tom Sawran (Burrell) at 543-0087.

Ienello

Christopher and Patricia (Capitania) Ienello of Foxboro announce the birth of their daughter, Hayley Elizabeth, on March 13 at Norwood Hospital.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Francis Donlan of Yarmouth and Mr. and Mrs. James Ienello of Foxboro.

Hayley was welcomed home by her sister Tamra, and brothers Dana and Scott.

SECRETARY MINUTES

I INTRODUCTION

II SECRETARY REPORT - B. Webster

All mail picked up and delivered. Tonights meeting advertised in the Foxboro Reporter. A Get Well card was sent to a member who had some surgery. It was also announced that Chris and Patty Ienello had a baby girl earlier in the day. A card was sent around.

III TREASURER REPORT - G. Shepardson

A financial statement was passed around detailing the past months' activity.

IV INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT - S. Smith

A) Volleyball, Mondays 7-9pm- B. Smith: Volleyball is ongoing, but they could always use some new bodies!

B) Installation Banquet, May 11-K. Badger: Kathy reports that all is going well. The cost will be about $18. per/person. Mark Moore or his DJ Company will handle music. She still needs a Master of Ceremonies.

C) 30th Anniversary Banquet- G. Shepardson: Glen reports that his committee is aiming for a fall affair. All of the past presidents will be contacted. They are expecting a very large gathering.

D) Spouse Appreciation Brunch, April-chairman needed: there has been very little interest in this. If nobody steps forward to chair, it will be taken from the agenda.

E) CPR - S. Kennedy/S. Smith: This has been postponed to later in April, due to a conflict with the instructor. A new sign up sheet was passed around.

F) Nominations Committee-G. Shepardson: The following nominations were announced.....

OFFICE	NOMINEE
CHAIRMAN.....	TIM KENNEDY
PRESIDENT.....	FRED BADGER
I.D. VICE PRESIDENT....	ED GROH
C.D. VICE PRESIDENT....	BOB WEBSTER
MEMBERSHIP V.P. ....	LINDA BRENNAN(floor nomination)
WAYS & MEANS V.P. ....	TOM SAWRAN
SECRETARY.....	ELAINE FULLERTON(floor nomination)
TREASURER.....	JANE WEBSTER
DIRECTORS:

Ways & Means Director.	Karen Apgar
Membership Director...	John Zarrella
Publicity.....	Kathy Badger

G) Presidential Fitness Program-B. Webster/T. Sawran: Bob and Tom("live by satellite from Florida) gave a small presentation and a special Tee Shirt to Fred Badger in Honor of "THE 2ND ANNUAL FRED BADGER PRESIDENTIAL RUN". At this point, a rather befuddled Mr. Badger spoke to us about his plans for the coming year.

INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT- continued

H) Jaycee Softball-chairman needed: Sandy Smith told of some challenges from some other JC Chapters to hold some friendly softball games this Spring or Summer. Dennis Brennan stepped up and volunteered to chair the project. At this point, Bill Meehan(an associate) made a challenge of his own! A game between the regular members and the associates. This should be good!!!!

V COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT - F. Badger

- A) Sand for Seniors-P.St.Laurent: Peter reports that some 90 buckets have been delivered. The weather has been very good to him and he has plenty more buckets if needed.
- B) Pancake Breakfast, March 24- T.Sawran: Tom was not at the meeting Fred Badger told of how the plans were going. He reports that we are making manpower calls and everyone is expected to work!
- C) 2nd Grade Basketball Clinic- Sawran/Webster: Bob reports that he will be handling the Taylor School, while Tom handles the Burrell. Tom and Bob each have second grade sons in their schools.
- D) High School Scholarship-F. Badger: Fred reports that they have received 90 applications and have gone through about half of them so far.
- E) Candidates Night-J.Webster: Jane will be running a candidates forum at the Selectmans' meeting room on April 17. This will be basically set up for cable TV as opposed to a live audience. All permissions have been granted. Jane will be writing letters to the candidates and contacting the local papers right away.
- F) Museum of Discovery- F.Badger: 6 people did scraping and spackling the other night. Three more did some follow-up painting. There is still need for workers on the 18th, 19th, and 20th of this month(next week).
- G) Goods for the Gulf-L.Bitar: This project is on hold due to the uncertainty of events in the Middle East. Jane Webster received a call from a group called the "Friends of Desert Storm" asking for space at the Pancake Breakfast. The committee decided to allow them to sell balloons and other novelty items at the Breakfast.
- H) Anon Court Moving P.St.Laurent: Paul Howard, Fred Badger and Peter helped an elderly woman move some furniture from one apartment to another in the nursing home. They received a $200. donation for their trouble.
- I) Alzheimer's Support Group- G.Shepardson: A decent used piano is needed for the Elderly Day Care.
- J) Crime Watch-chairman needed
- K) Mother's Day Essays- T.Tomasello : No news yet

VIII OLD BUSINESS

We bought an ad for $50. to support The Friends of Kennedy Donovan Center.

Theo on-going saga of chapter insurance was dicussed
White Water Rafting has been cancelled until 1992.

IX NEW BUSINESS

Sandy Smith is working on getting a representative of the Pawtucket Red Sox to speak at the May GM.

X PROJECT OF THE MONTH

Jane Websters' Wise Fox is project of the month for its continued excellence!!!!

XI JC OF THE MONTH

Dick Mordaunt is this months winner for his help with computerizing the CYO kids for ticket distribution and for his continued help with the rosters, calendars, and mailing labels for the Fox. This sure beats a Frog, huh Dick???

XII FROG OF THE MONTH

John Zarrella for a certain trip to see an alligator and for forgetting his son at the library while working at the Museum of Discovery.

XIII REMARKS FOR THE GOOD OF THE CHAPTER

XIV CREED

XV ADJOURNMENT

XVI ASSOCIATES NIGHT

At this point in the meeting Fred Badger roasted 13 associates. Each associate had to put up with a lot of BS and then received a gag gift ~~for~~ for their troubles! We all appreciate the associates coming out for this event. I think everyone involved had a lot of laughs!!!

Community Development

Sand for Seniors - P. St. Laurent

Peter will be calling for some help in picking up the buckets that were distributed earlier in the winter. If you have some free time, please lend a hand.

Pancake Breakfast - T. Sawran

A total of 1680 (not 6,680) were served. The breakfast was a big success for Youth Basketball. Great job Tom!

2nd Grade Basketball Clinic - B. Webster/T. Sawran

The clinic continues. As it turns out, several parents have volunteered to help teach this year. Great community involvement.

High School Scholarships - F. Badger

The reading of the applications will be done on 4/8/91 and delivered to the High School guidance department by 4/12/91.

Candidates' Night

The date is 4/17/91. Cable television and both local newspapers have been booked to cover the event. The rules have gone out to all of the candidates for review. There are a total of 10 candidates competing for four positions. If you like to help out on the night of the event, please call Jane at 543-6959.

Museum of Discovery - F. Badger

Work in the lobby was completed on 3/29/91. My thanks to all who helped.

Mother's Day Essays - T. Tomasello

Terry will be looking for a committee to help read the essays. This is a good project for some of the newer members to get involved.

Burrell School - D. Sullivan

The burrell School is building a new playground and has asked the Jaycees to manage the sand distribution part of the project. The date is 5/18/91. Dan will be looking for some people to help.

Crime Watch - P. St. Laurent

Peter has volunteered to chair this project. This is a project that will require a different type of manpower approach. This will be more of a long term commitment. If you have a concern about crime and want to get involved, then sign up for this project.

TV Donation - G. Shepardson

The television that was donated to the Jaycees by an Anon Court resident will cost less than $50.00 to fix. It will then be donated to a needy family.

Van-Go Donation -

When we moved an Anon Court resident, she gave the Jaycees a $200.00 donation. Part of the money will be used to fix the television. The remainder of the money will be donated to the Van-Go Fund Raising project to help purchase a new van for the senior citizens.

INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT REPORT

APRIL

Installation Banquet - K. Badger

The banquet is planned for MAY 11, 1991 at the Best Western in Norwood. There will be dinner and dancing. Kathy will be sending out the invitation very soon. Please respond. Hope to see everyone there.....

Volleyball - B. Smith

Volleyball has been going well but as the season draws to an end, there is always a need for more people to play in order to cover the cost. All are welcome.....

Associates Night - Final Report. A great time was had by all that attended. The project came in at $100 under budget which is hard to believe since had as good a time as ever. Thanks to all those who helped.

Nominations Committee - G. Shepardson

Elections will take place at the next GM. Glenn has volunteers to run for each position but nominations from the floor will still be accepted if you are interested or know of anyone you think will do a good job. It has always been a good idea to attend the April GM to be sure that you are not voted in to any position you don't desire!!! See you all there.

CPR Certification - S. Kennedy/S. Smith

This has not been rescheduled yet. We are waiting for the instructor to update his credentials. We will keep you all updated.

30th Anniversary Banquet - G. Shepardson

The committee has met several times now in the initial planning stages of this gala event. It will run in early November at the Lakeview Ballroom. The committee so far is made up of Paul Kelly, Bill Meehan, Sandy Smith, Paul Howard and Glenn. If anyone is interested in joining us please let Glenn know.

JC Softball - Bill Meehan challenged the regular members to play the associates at a friendly softball game. The challenge was accepted and Dennis Brennan volunteered to chair the regular member group while Bill was volunteered since it was his idea. Hopefully, we will be hearing from them in the future unless the associates get nervous and back down.

HOPE TO SEE YOU ALL AT THE NEW MEMBERS BBQ AND AT THE INSTALLATION BANQUET. IT'S NICE TO SHOW YOUR SUPPORT TO THIS YEAR'S BOARD AND NEXT YEAR'S INCOMING BOARD BY ATTENDING THE BANQUET. IT HAS ALWAYS BEEN A GOOD TIME AND PROMISES TO AGAIN THIS YEAR.....

Sandra and Bryan Smith volunteers to the core

By Evie Malm

Local Jaycee Sandra Smith holds the unique distinction of being the first woman to be honored as Key Man of the Year.

Gender aside, her husband, Bryan, will be the first to tell you she deserved it.

One of the first jobs Sandra took on upon joining the Jaycees three years ago was organizing The Lafayette House parking lot as a fund-raiser during stadium events. She lined up volunteers to staff the various events and helped turn the lot into a large money-maker.

When the Pini family sold the restaurant, the new owners changed policies and the Jaycees lost a major money-maker. As Bryan says, "We will always remember the Pinis and how good they were."

But Sandra didn't let that get her down. She just took on new projects. Like the annual Haunted House, a Halloween event co-sponsored with Mansfield Jaycees. This year Sandra was the Salem witch that got hung every night — make that at least 100 times a night!

Her other major project in the fall in between her regular job was a telephone campaign to encourage new families to join the organization — a job that netted 30 new members.

(For the past few years Sandy also has been a fixture behind the griddle at the Jaycees annual pancake breakfast. As luck would have it, she can be seen in action in a photo display on the facing page.)

Although Bryan grew up in Roslindale and West Roxbury, Foxboro has always been home to Sandra. She is the daughter of Ralph Crowther and the late Gibby Crowther, who managed the Burrell School cafeteria for many years.

Graduating in 1976, she and her brother and sisters grew up on Chestnut Street and attended Foxboro schools. She then enrolled at Fitchburg State, where she met Bryan who was majoring in industrial arts.

Following their marriage in 1981, they settled into apartment living. He worked in the construction industry, she in the medical technology field. They had planned to spend five or six years saving for a home, but their landlord decided in 1984 to needed their Norwood apartment for his own daughter.

Bryan suggested they look for a home in Foxboro; he wanted to live in the country and always liked visiting here. She had "felt guilty about asking to look in Foxboro."

But their home reflects proof of hard work in bringing back the beautiful wood floors, stripping the woodwork, and adding cornices to their natural finish. Throughout the home are the ciled curtains made by Sandra. No job has been too large for them to tackle, with the exception of the roof. Both are in the process of finishing the third floor pool room which is Bryan's pride and joy.

In between all the work, the duo fit in a trip to England and France. In addition, they find time to go camping two or three times a year, and occasionally take some time to cruise around on their motorcycle, and enjoy downhill skiing.

Although they have little time in their busy schedules, a clear night out at a local restaurant might be to Tee Tees in Walpole for an Italian dish or to the Capri in Plainville for the pizza.

Both love Foxboro and intend to spend a long time here.

WAYS AND MEANS
APRIL 1991

It's hard to believe that we only have one more month left in the year! We've had some great projects and made a great deal of money while hopefully having lots of fun too. After patting yourselves on the back and receiving some well-deserved congratulations for a job well-done, please take a deep breath and get ready for another big one. Founders' Day is fast approaching!

On June 8 we will be holding our third Founders' Day BBQ. IT IS NOT GOING TO RAIN THIS YEAR!!! And the Founders' Day committee has arranged for a large tent to keep the hot sun off the participants. We will also be erecting tarps over the cooking area. Chairman Bob Webster has begun attending the Founders' Day committee meetings and will be forming his own committee soon. He's going to need lots of help so give him a call at 543-6959 if you would like to be on the committee or work the project.

Tom Sawran will be running a hot dog sale during the day and Fred Badger will be selling glow items during the fireworks at night. They will both need some help so give them a call if you would like to volunteer.

Founders' Day is going to be even bigger and better this year so I hope everyone plans to attend and help out if they can. Except for the Kick-Off Dance on Friday, June 7th, Founders' Day is for FAMILIES. Bring yours and have a great time. Watch the Reporter for details.

See you at the GM on April 10-

WISCONSIN BOUND!!!!

A FOND FAREWELL FOR THE WASHBURNS

Karen and Dick Mordaunt hosted a nice going away party for Patrick and Dawn Washburn on Friday, the 22nd. We presented them with an inscribed mantel clock and our very best wishes!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

MEMBERSHIP REPORT
APRIL 1991

1)New Members Barbecue: As you read this, the Barbecue will already have taken place(Saturday night) at the Kennedys'. Hopefully, We all had a good time!!!

2)New Members Handbook: Mary Marshall has completed this information package. It explains everything from $15. fact-finder to "R.F.O"! With the great typing skills of my favorite keypadist(Lauren Bitar), we should have copies by the GM.

3)Membership Booth: Glen Shepardson and Liz Nametz put together a nice display for in side the entrance to the Pancake Breakfast. It contained pictures and newspaper clippings from many of the past years' projects. They also passed out a Thank You(for your support) note that I wrote to tell people a little about the Jaycees and to solicit members. I appreciate the work Liz and Glen did, working both shifts at the Breakfast. They accepted three applications and we are hoping the folks show up at the GM.

4>Welcome Wagon Brochure: Elaine Fullerton and I put the finishing touches on this last week. She now has to get everything into a tri-fold format(not that easy!) so it can be printed. We are hoping that this brochure will be so nice that it can be used as a general purpose flyer. With any luck, these will also be ready for the GM.

**** FOXBORO JAYCEES 30th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION ****

MARK YOUR CALENDAR TODAY *****DON'T MISS OUT ON THIS PARTY!

November 15, 1991

Lakeview Pavillion, Foxboro

The committee needs your help. We are looking for a copy of the Chairman's Planning Guide (CPG) written for the 20th Anniversary Party back in 1981. This was chaired by Jerry Norwood, Bob Cole, Dave Fitzgerald, and a few others. If you know of the whereabouts of a copy or know a past Jaycee from that era, call them and ask or call me with their name and phone number. Also, we need everyone to clean out their attics, cellars, and spare rooms with Jaycee paraphernalia, plaques, trophies, pictures, etc. and give Bill Meehan or Paul Howard a call with what you have. This Anniversary Party will be the largest Jaycee event we have seen in a long time so don't miss out.....circle the date on your calendar in red. More later.

Election races shape up as deadline nears

Dietzel resigns health post; Avery joins fray

To run in the May 6 Annual Town Election, residents must return nomination papers to the town clerk's office with at least 50 signatures by 5 p.m. Monday (March 18).

To help inform the public about the various races, the Foxboro Jaycees will sponsor a candidate's night 7:30 p.m. April 17 in the Town Hall meeting room between candidates in contested races.

Jane Webster, a Jaycee who is running the event, said candidates will respond to questions posed by the press. The event will be cablecast on Foxboro Cable Access.

So far there are races for seats on four boards: selectmen, health, planning and library.

Citing family commitments, William Dietzel Jr. this week announced his resignation from the board of health, creating a second health board slot on the ballot. Harold "Thomas" Avery of 391

South St. has taken out nomination papers to fill the remaining two years of Dietzel's term.

Health board incumbent John Ferreira and Daniel Iagatta III are vying for Ferreira's three-year seat.

William Dietzel

In other races:

■ Cheryl Darlington and James Evans Jr. are running for selectman following Michael DeCenzo's decision not to run again.

■ William E. Connolly of 26 Granite St., Cynthia Ferguson of 17 Eastman Ave. and John Philibert of 39 Main St. have taken out nomination papers for a three-year term on the board of library trustees. There are two vacancies.

■ Robert Scott of 115 Chestnut St. and incumbents John Sheehan Jr. and Neil Kaiser are running for a three-year slot on the planning board. There are two vacancies.

The following incumbents are thus far running unopposed:

■ A. Marie Crimmins, town clerk, one year.

■ Mary Quinn, Housing Authority, five years.

■ Garrett Spillane Jr., moderator, one year.

■ Lillian Colavecchio, school committee, three years.

■ Arthur Gallagher, school committee, three years.

■ Barbara Germaine, treasurer and collector, one year.

■ Paul J. Lanza, Board of Water and Sewer Commissioners, three years.

■ William Buckley, Board of Assessors, three years.

Sunday 24th

Pancake Breakfast

Just a reminder! Plans are under way for the Jaycees 17th annual pancake breakfast, to be held on March 24, from 7:30 a.m. to noon. Tickets are $3; children under 5, free; senior citizens $2 at the door.

Proceeds will benefit the Foxboro Youth Basketball Program.

Mac-Gray Company Inc., New England's largest distributor of commercial laundry equipment, announces the appointment of Timothy B. Sullivan of Foxboro to the position of corporate director of operations. Sullivan, who joined Mac-Gray a year ago, recently held the position of manager of operations for the company's Cambridge office. Prior to joining Mac-Gray, he was employed with the L.G. Balfour Co. of Attleboro for 20 years, most recently as vice president and general manager of its education division. A graduate of Holy Cross College and Northeastern University, Sullivan serves on the board of directors of Abington Insurance Co., Foxboro Federal Savings Bank, and Neponset Valley Health System. He and his wife, Louise, have four children.

HOT OFF THE GRIDDLE AT ANNUAL PANCAKE BREAKFAST

BACK FLIP — Sandy Smith, who was featured in a front-page photo of the pancake breakfast last year, once again returned to her familiar spot behind the griddle. It was just like being at home, she reported.

Pancake breakfast on March 24

The Foxboro Jaycees 17th Annual Pancake Breakfast will be held 7:30 a.m. to noon Sunday, March 24 in the Foxboro High School cafeteria on South Street.

Admission is $3 per person, $2 for senior citizens, children under five free.

It's an all-you-can-eat breakfast, with sausages, orange juice, milk and coffee.

All proceeds go to support the Foxboro youth basketball league run by the Catholic Youth Organization.

CYO basketball is a non-denominational program that gives hundreds of kids, ages eight to 16, an opportunity to play and learn together. And the program does not burden the taxpayers.

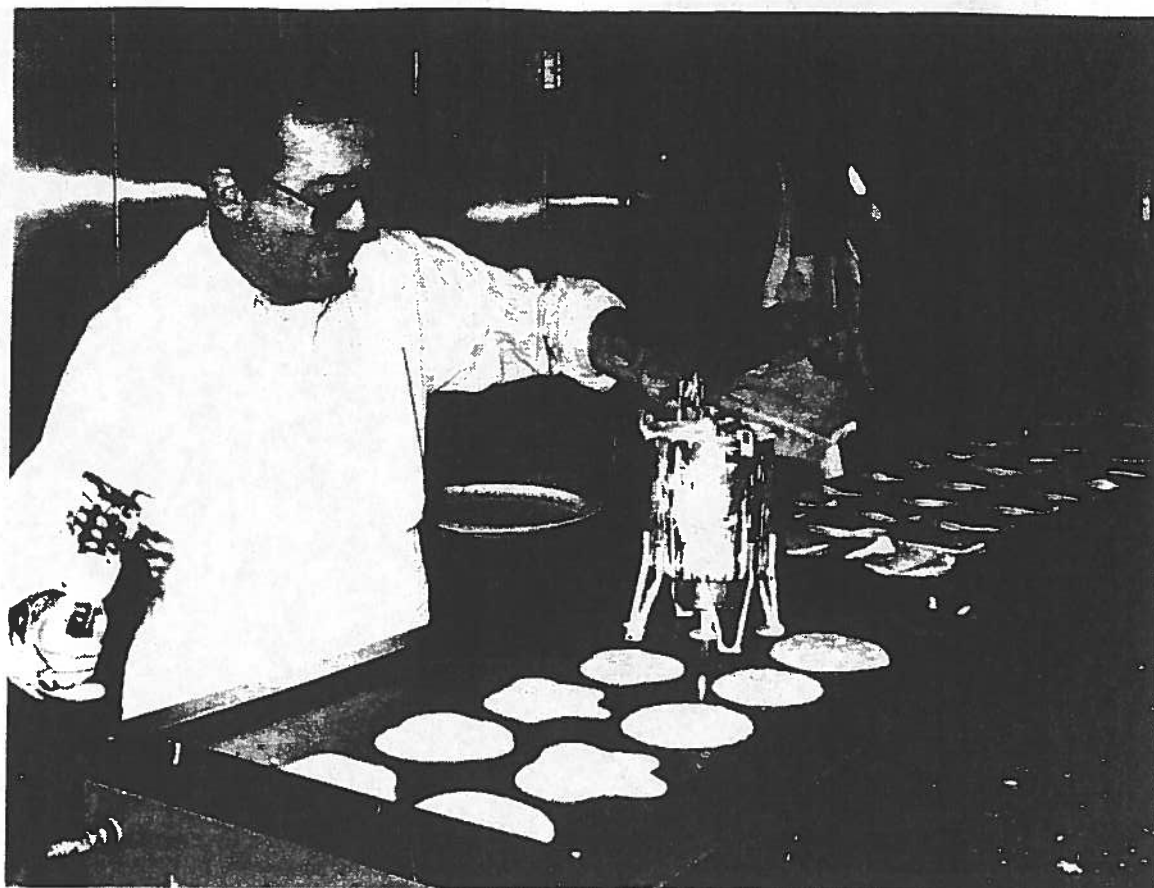

Each year, more than 50 coaches volunteer their time and effort to teaching basketball skills, teamwork and self-confidence. The pancake breakfast is the biggest source of income to fund this program. Last year over 1,500 breakfasts were served, and the Foxboro Jaycees turned over $3,700 to Foxboro youth basketball.

The annual pancake breakfast has grown into a big event for the community — a "must do" for hundreds of families before or after church or simply a great excuse for not cooking Sunday morning.

To keep things moving fast, the Foxboro Jaycees plan to increase its force of griddle flippers this year.

So mark Sunday March 24 on your calendar for a morning of good cheer, good food and good value.

GIVING IT THE JUICE — Paul O'Sullivan keeps busy refilling the orange juice trays.

A real record-breaker

The 17th annual Foxboro Jaycees pancake breakfast held last Sunday at the high school cafeteria broke all records by serving 6,680 breakfasts and raising more than $4,000.

The project was coordinated by Tom Sawran, whose sole focus was to make sure the lines kept moving. He said no one had to wait more than 20 minutes for service.

Sawran said the Jaycees used 330 pounds of pancake mix to make an estimated 5,000 pancakes. In addition, the hungry diners consumed 500 pounds of sausages, 170 half-gallons of orange juice, 24 gallons of syrup and 30 pounds of coffee.

Not a bad morning's work.

FLAPJACK TWINS — Lisa Florenzo (left) and Nicole Sawran, both fourth grade students at the Burrell Elementary School, are among the dozens of youths who will be waiting on tables at the Foxboro Jaycees 17th Annual Pancake Breakfast 7:30 to noon Sunday March 24 in the Foxboro High School cafeteria. Nicole's dad, Tom Sawran, is project chairman this year. (Photo by Frank Mortimer)

Prizes were awarded at the Pancake Breakfast to CYO basketball participants for outstanding ticket sale efforts. For every ten tickets a player sold, he/she had one chance entered in a drawing for a $100.00 gift certificate at the Emerald Square Mall. The team with the most total tickets sold received a free pizza party. Winners were: Heather Morgan of the Lakers in Girls C League for $100.00 gift certificate and Girls C league team, Jazz, coached by John Zarrella won the pizza party.

Dear Mr. Kennedy,

On behalf of the children and adults with special needs served by Kennedy-Donovan Center, many thanks to you and all of the members of the Foxboro Jaycees for sponsoring a Friends Listing in the Founder's Award Program Book. We are looking forward to hosting over 300 guests as we honor Barbara and Walter Tillinghast for their contributions to those with special needs!

The theme of this years event is "Reflections" -- a special time to reflect on the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Tillinghast, on the Center's programs, as well as of the accomplishments of the individuals we serve. We are honored to "reflect" the Foxboro area through your organization.

Thank you again for your support of the Kennedy-Donovan Center.

With best wishes,

Paul J. Hudson
Executive Director

P.S. We are looking forward to hosting Foxboro Jaycees' CPR training in April.

TIM'S TURN

Congratulations to Fred Badger and the new board of directors! More importantly, congratulations to each member for continuing to make the Foxboro Jaycees a positive force in community service, individual development, and leadership training. Your enthusiasm and involvement make it possible for the chapter to grow by attracting new members, thereby increasing the number and scope of our projects. On to the new year!

Be sure to watch for information regarding the chapter softball team. There is much interest in the proposed match between regular and associate members. We would like to follow-up with games against other chapters. Call Dennis Brennan for more details.

Sandy Smith has put together several interesting topics for upcoming GMs. Information will be available in the Fox and from members of the board of directors. Come to the May GM featuring a baseball theme and while you're there give the board your ideas on projects and training you'd like to have offered this year.

Thanks to Jane Webster, our Wise Fox editor, for getting our monthly articles to print consistently on time. As usual, your Wise Fox is filled with information regarding continuing and pending projects.

I would like to thank my board of directors for their support this past year. Much was accomplished and I think we all enjoyed our work. Special thanks to my wife Susan for her help with Meetings & Programs, above and beyond the burdens of being the First Lady.

We're all looking forward to seeing you at the GM, May 8, and at the Installation Banquet May 11.

Yours in Jaycees,

FOXBORO JAYCEES GENERAL MEETING
10 APRIL 1991
SECRETARY - MINUTES

I INTRODUCTION

II SECRETARY REPORT - B. Webster

All mail has been picked up and delivered. Last months' minutes have been recorded and printed in the Wise Fox.

III TREASURER - G. Shepardson

Glen passed around around a financial statement. We look pretty good right now. WE JUST DON'T TYPE TOWELL!! EW

IV INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT - S. Smith

A) Volleyball-B.Smith: The turn out on Monday nights at the Igo gym continues to be good. Eight people a night are required to break even on the gym rental. Anyone interested should contact Brian or just come on down at 7:00pm Mondays.

B) Installation Banquet-K. Badger: Kathy reports that all the plans have been made. Invitations have gone out. Paul Howard will be the master of ceremonies for the evening and an associate of Mark Moores' DJ outfit will be handling the dance tunes.

C) 30th Anniversary Banquet-G. Shepardson: Glen has a committee working on this event. They are planning to have over 200 people at a gala affair at the Lakeview Pavillion. The projected expense is $5600.00. The projected income from ticket sales is $4600.00. Glen feels that this is such an important thing for the chapter that he is asking for the chapter to appropriate the other $1000. A motion was made and passed with one nay vote.

D) CPR-Kennedy/Smith: They are waiting for the instuctor to recover from an illness before rescheduling.

E) Nominations Committee-G.Shepardson: moved to new business

F) Softball-D.Brennan: Dennis received a challenge from the Worcester chapter to go out on May 4 for a round robin all day affair with other chapters. He sent around a sign-up sheet.

G) Jaycee Shirts-J.Zarrella: John brought a sample of the hats he will be ordering. They will be blue with gold letters and will be $5.00 for members. Also in the process of being order are golf shirts. It was decided that 36 hat will be ordered and calls will be made to determine the number of shirts needed.

H) Going Away Party- K.Mordaunt: The Mordaunts had a nice going away party for Patrick and Dawn Washburn. They will be missed.

I) Baseball Theme Night-S.Smith: Sandy is going to be having a special theme at the next GM. We will be seeing a Red Sox High-light film from 1990. There will be programs from the Pawtucket Red Sox. Sandy is planning a family trip to see a game at Pawtucket. There was a sign-up sheet passed around to check on interest in a possible May 17 game.

V COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT - F. Badger

A) Sand for Seniors-P.St.Laurent: Done for this year(we hope!)

B) Pancake Breakfast-T.Sawran: Tom reports that the breakfast was a big success. The wait was never more that ten or fifteen minutes. That always keeps the people happy. We served more meals this year than last but seemed to make a little less money. The speculation is that there were probably far fewer no-shows this year than in other years. The preliminary figures indicate that we will be giving CYO Basketball more than $3000. Not a bad days work!!

- C) 2nd Grade Basketball Clinic-Webster/Sawran: Bob reports that the last week is coming and he and Tom are glad it's over! This is a time consuming project, but well worth it for the kids and the good Jaycee exposure. Bob and Tom had many good parent/coaches to help make everything run smooth.
- D) High School Scholarships-F.Badger: Fred and a small committee consisting of Kathy Badger, Ed and Jeanette Groh read all of the sixty odd applications, picked their top ten and sent them back to the guidance department. Fred brought a motion to raise our current two $500. scholarships to two $1000. scholarships. It was passed.
- E) Candidates Night-J.Webster: Jane reports that everything is lined up for April 17. Dick Leggee will be the moderator. Mark Linde will be taking care of the cable coverage(channel 6).
- F) Museum of Discovery-F.Badger: Fred reports that this job is thankfully complete. The Jaycees basically refurbished the whole lobby area.
- G) Mothers' Day Essays-T.Tomasello: Terry has been in contact with the two elementary schools to start the project moving.
- H) Fathers' Day Essays-chairman needed: Tony DiBona volunteered to take this project.
- I) Burrell School Playground-D.Sullivan: The playground committee from the Burrell School has asked the Jaycees to work on May 18. We will be handling landscape timbers and gravel. Dan will be making calls.
- J) Common Signs-T.Sawran: Tom has cut down and re-lettered the Jaycee signs to meet with the new standards set forth by the Selectmen. We will be needing new plastic inserts right away.
- K) Road Signs-F.Badger: Fred reports that Peter St.Laurent has driven around town to check on the condition of all out Jaycees welcome you signs.
- L) Crime Watch-P.StLaurent: Peter needs coordinators from several key areas around town. He passed around a sign-up sheet.
- M) T.V Donation-G.Shepardson: The tv took $52.40 to be repaired. We are now waiting for the Discretionary Fund to help with the donation.
- N) Van-Go: A $200. contribution was recently received from a senior citizen that we helped move. The 52.40 TV repair was taken from this. Fred Badger made a motion that we donate the remainder of the money to the Vango project, which is a shuttle bus for seniors. The motion was passed.

VII WAYS & MEANS - K. Mordaunt

- A) Placemats-M.Moore: Mark reports that there is still some mix-up with the printer. He seems to think he has more money coming and Mark feels that they are all square. Tim and Mark will be going to the printers to straighten it all out this week. The overall project did very well. The profit will be more than $600.
- B) Stadium Cleaning-K.Apgar: Karen is still having trouble getting into contact with the right person at the stadium. She will be writing a letter this week.
- C) Haunted House-chairman needed: This is not too early to start thinking about this now. Preliminary meeting must take place with different people soon. Tami Melish has volunteered to chair. Good Luck Tami!
- D) Founder's Day BBQ-B.Webster: Bob reports that he attended the founders day committee meeting last week. This year there will be a 40" X 100" tent on the Booth Playground. This is a rain or shine affair! Bob needs a committee for the BBQ and sent around a sign-up sheet. They will be meeting soon.

Community Development

1. 2nd Grade Basketball Clinic - B. Webster/T. Sawran
The clinic ran its last night on April 18th. Thanks to Bob and Tom for their time and efforts. The kids really appreciate it.
2. High School Scholarship - F. Badger
As voted on at the April GM, each scholarship was increased from $500 to $1000. The scholarship applications were delivered to the high school on April 12th. Thanks to Kathy Badger and Ed & Jeannette Groh for their help.
3. Candidates Night - J. Webster
Candidates Night was held on April 17th and was very successful. Congrats to Jane for a fine job. Truly a 'Community Development' project.
4. Mother's Day Essays - T. Tomasello
All of the necessary info was delivered to the schools. Terry may ask for some help in judging.
5. Father's Day Essays - T. DiBona
Tony has volunteered to chair this project and will begin planning soon.
6. Burrell School Playground - D. Sullivan
The date is May 18th. However, we may be asked to spread the sand during the week prior because the playground committee is concerned with kids playing on an unsafe base.
7. Common Signs - T. Sawran
Thanks to Tom for renovating the signs according to town specifications. Now, if all the others will do the same.
8. Road Signs - P. St. Laurent
Peter is doing this as part of his sand bucket retrieval. Some of the signs are in need of replacement. Peter will address the chapter at the next GM.
9. Crime Watch - P. St. Laurent
Peter sent out an informational packet to each of the five coordinators. He is planning a meeting for early May to discuss plans.
10. TV Donation - G. Shepardson
The television we received will be donated to the Foxboro Adult Daycare.
11. Van-Go Donation - F. Badger
$150.00 will be donated to the Foxboro Council on Aging towards the purchase of a new van.

I would like to take a moment to thank everyone who participated in any CD project this year. Providing for the town we live in is what we're all about. Best of luck to Bob Webster as next year's CD Vice President. Sure, it's a lot of work but the accomplishments are rewarding.

IDVP MONTHLY REPORT FOR APRIL 1991

- Volleyball - B. Smith; Brian reports that enough people have been attending to continue into May. Everyone is still welcome.
- Installation Banquet - K. Badger; Kathy reports that she has received only a few responses to the invitations mailed. Please send yours along. We will begin making calls in a week or so to remind people. This should be a great time so don't miss it. Any questions, give Kathy or I a call.
- 30th Anniversary Banquet - G. Shepardson; Glenn reports that progress is coming. We have found the list of addresses used for the twentieth anniversary. The membership also voted a $1000 budget at the last GM to help cover the non-variable costs such as a DJ, flowers, and most of all invitations and postage. The chapter had allocated $500 for the 20th Banquet.
- CPR Training - S. Kennedy/S. Smith; We are looking into arranging this course using a different trainer since our first choice has been quite ill since volunteering. More information on this will be available by the GM hopefully.
- Softball - D. Brennan; Dennis could not be reached for information at the time this report was being made. He did show us a flyer that was mailed to other JC Chapters at the GM and has a practice scheduled for the first weekend of MAY. Please call him if interested. We will have more information at the next GM.
- JC Shirts - J. Zarrella; John reports that the shirts and hats have been ordered. The hats may be available by the next GM so bring a little extra cash if you're interested in purchasing one. John took orders for "golf" shirts...if you did not order one but would like one it is still not too late. There are extras ordered so to insure that he reserves your size, please give him a call.
- pawtucket red sox game - S. Smith; We are sponsoring a family trip to a Sox game at McCoy Stadium on May 17th. It's a Friday night game at 7pm. Tickets are $4 for adults and $3 for children under 12.. I must have the money by Sunday the 11. Please bring your money to the GM or mail it to me by then. See the ad in this Wise Fox. YES, Kids are welcome!!!!
- Meetings and Programs - S. Smith; The May GM will be Baseball Theme Night. See the ad on the last page and don't forget to wear your SOX apparel. Hope to see you all there....

WAYS AND MEANS
MAY 1991

This has been a great year! Thanks to everyone that participated in our Ways and Means projects. Hopefully you had a good time with friends while helping to keep a fantastic organization in the black.

I want to welcome Tom Sawran as the new Ways & Means V.P. and wish him good luck! The Founders' Day BBQ is fast approaching and we all need to support Tom and chairman Bob Webster. This is a major project and it will take lots of manpower all through the day. Also, Tom may need some help with his hot dog sale and Fred might need some people for the glow item sale. Call to volunteer.

Welcome to Fred and his new board. Best of luck and have a good year!

Thanks again,

Karen

have to say on local issues.*

Candidates gather and spread gospel

Candidates vying for seats on four elected boards faced off in a televised candidate's forum Wednesday night, explaining and clarifying positions on a number of issues facing local taxpayers.

Sponsored by Foxboro Jaycees and moderated by local historian Richard Leggee, the forum marked the beginning of the home-stretch for those seeking office in the annual town election May 6.

Candidates' Night

Participants included selectman candidates Cheryl Darlington and James Evans Jr., Planning Board hopefuls John Sheehan Jr. and Robert Scott, Board of Health contestants Harold "Thomas" Avery and Thomas McGowan III and William Connelly Sr., who is seeking election as a trustee of Boyden Library.

Commanding the most attention, Evans and Darlington opened the forum by spelling out their background and qualifications for the selectman's job.

"All I want to do is share some of the experience I've gained in the past six years as an employee and as a volunteer," Darlington said in a prepared statement.

Evans identified as the single overriding problem facing the town an existing shortfall in revenue that he said must be dealt with by applying "sound management principles" to the budget process.

FOXBORO — Cheryl Darlington and James Evans, Jr., both candidates for the seat being vacated by Selectman Michael DeCenzo, Wednesday presented opposing viewpoints at the Jaycees' Candidates' Night concerning ballot Question 2, which asks voters to support the creation of a centralized municipal finance department.

Jeffrey Peterson, managing editor of The Foxboro Reporter, and Juliet Pennington of The Sun Chronicle, posed questions to candidates, each of whom had to limit their responses to two minutes, during the two-hour forum moderated by Dick Leggee and televised by Foxboro Cable Access.

Darlington, an incumbent planning board member, expressed doubts concerning the necessity of the structural reforms called for by Question 2, as well as over the completeness of the proposal.

"Some of the pieces are missing," she said. "I'd like to see more than just a few pieces."

Evans, however, voiced his support. "As a $20-million town, it's important to have fiscal management in the hands of professionals," he said. "This is the first step in putting the fiscal house in order."

In response to a question from Pennington regarding the fairness of teacher raises in light of the town's current financial situation and the school department's request for a $390,000 override of Proposition 2½, Evans and Darlington both said they would vote for the override.

While crediting teachers and school committee members with trying to follow guidelines, Darlington said negotiators should have dealt with the financial situation appropriately when they knew there would be no money.

Political newcomer Evans also supported the school department override.

"A contract is a contract," he said. "As a selectman, I don't believe I would ever encourage someone to break a contract. I don't believe we should balance our budget on the backs of employees."

However, he emphasized that depending on an override to solve budget problems was not a good idea. "We've got to look at good management controls," Evans said. "But the best way to protect our assets in this fiscal year is with the override."

Darlington also favored the override for recycling.

"The fee ($14 per year) is minor," she said.

When asked if elected officials should be entitled to health-insurance benefits from the town, both candidates responded negatively.

Darlington said that health care was not to be expected "unless you are a salaried employee."

She mentioned that her knowledge of zoning bylaws and the daily events at town hall would help her, as a selectman, "to bring a little more communication" and "to make it easier to negotiate through the times coming up."

Evans, in turn, felt that his educational background in finance, his teaching experience and his 10 years of management consulting would be assets to the town if he were selectman.

ODE TO A FIRST LADY

It began with an election that Tim won by a hair.
But it was only the beginning of Sue's longest nightmare.

She figured Tim was the President,
He'd do all the work.
How in the world could she have been such a jerk?

First Lady, three kids, a career...
That's not enough.
Take on Meeting & Programs...
That's pretty easy stuff!

Lugging beer cans and coolers,
what could be more serene?
But you'd better save some energy for pulling Christine!

A hundred times a night...
A three hundred pound car!
It's beginning to look like Tim's gone too far!

But the show must go on at the old Haunted House.
Go sit in the darkness.
Now be a good spouse!

At Christmas time
She planned eight for dinner
A neighbor got sick...
Guess who was the winner.

Ten extra guests
is a nasty condition.
But you can't complain,
It comes with the position.

The winter months seemed to last so much longer.
Her distaste for this job was growing much stronger.

You can finish this term Sue!
You've got it in ya.
Then all of a sudden, Tim moves to Virginia!

Cancel the Board meeting.
You can make all the calls.
That husband of yours
has got a lot of....nerve!

Associate night comes and the year's almost done...
Don't just sit there girl.
Get the pizza! Run!

Pancake Breakfast weekend is better forgotten.
Tim had some bourbon and was feeling quite rotten!

Little Laura announced it,
and no one could stop her.
That she'd just seen Daddy throw up in the hopper!

New Members Barbecue and everything was set.
By the way, is that basement finished yet?

If it wasn't bad enough to have your deck hit the dirt.
Some jerk comes along and puts a burger down your shirt!

Now the year's finally over.
She's smiling and yet...
How can she ever completely forget...

The bitchin', the moanin',
The screamin' and roarin'.
The long telephone calls from Mr. Tom Sawran!

Sue's put up with it all and what did it get her?
Frog nomination and nothing much better!

But if you really look back Sue,
It wasn't so bad.
And I think that you really enjoyed it a tad!!!!!!

THE FRED FACTOR

As we begin the new year, let me congratulate everyone on the accomplishments of the year past. Once again, it was a year filled with hard work and enjoyment, but most of all results. Let me also congratulate Bob Webster for being elected Key Man for 1990-91. It is an award well-deserved and one he can truly be proud of.

As we look to the new year, we must focus our attention on membership. If we are to carry on the Jaycee tradition in Foxboro, we need to recruit people who, in the coming years, will be in a position to do so. I would ask that everyone try their best to recruit one new member during the year. All you need to do is ask.

Our most important meeting of the year will be the June G.M. If you have an interest on how we are to allocate funds during the coming year, I urge you to attend.

As I said at the Installation Banquet, we will do a lot of hard work this year because you wouldn't have it any other way. But keep one thing in mind, make sure you have fun doing it!

Best of luck to everyone during the coming year!

Yours in Jaycees,

Fred

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT REPORT
JUNE 1991

MOTHER'S DAY ESSAYS- Terri Tomasello had almost 200 third graders from the Taylor and Burrell Schools compete this year. Together with three other judges, She came up with two winners from each school. The kids were awarded with a $25 dollar gift and a picture in the Foxboro Reporter.

BURRELL SCHOOL PLAYGROUND- Dan Sullivan put together a group of very hard workers from the Jaycees and the playground committee. On Saturday, the 18th of May, these workers moved and raked some 210 tons of sand onto the newly built playground area. This job took the entire day and came out very nicely. The Playground folks were very pleased with our efforts and were able to hold their grand opening picnic on that Sunday. Special recognition goes to Peter St.Laurent for his Bobcat driving expertise!!

FATHER'S DAY ESSAYS- Tony DiBona is handling this project and has been in contact with the two schools. He should have more information at the GM.

FOUNDER'S DAY FLOAT- Jane Webster now has sitting in her garage one of the oldest, rustiest boat trailers you could imagine. When Dick Mordaunt volunteered to donate the trailer, his only stipulation was that Jane couldn't return it to him!! Jane is thinking of a possible Haunted House theme, together with a membership push. It will be nice to see the Jaycees be represented in the parade.

CAMP LINCOLN HILL- Tony DiBona has been investigating what it will take to make some major renovations in our building at the camp. Our building is the one right up front that we use for Christmas Tree sales. Tony has put together a very detailed plan with cost estimates that he will present at the next GM.

ROAD SIGNS- Peter St.Laurent has made a survey of the town Jaycee signs. He got an appropriation at the last GM and has put in an order for four new signs.

CONCERTS ON THE COMMON- Mary Marshall is going to chair a concert this summer. Mary will be getting together with Lauren Bitar and myself next week to "brainstorm" about some ideas. More will be discussed at the GM.

PROJECT HEAD FIRST- I recently received an information package from the Mass. Jaycees. about this new program. It involves working together with the police department in an effort to support the use of safety helmets for children riding bikes. I will have more information at the GM and will be looking for a chairman.

See you at the GM,
Bob Webster CDVP

PS: I actually expect to <sup>SEE</sup> everyone at Founder's Day Barbecue.....
We have one Hell of a lot of chicken to cook and serve and word has it that it will not rain this year!!!!

MOTHER'S DAY ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS

She understands

I want everyone to know I have the most awesome mom in the world because she understands all of my problems. She's my only true best friend and no one can replace her. I love her very much and never want to hurt her. She's a very special part of my life and I like her being there whenever I needed her. I like playing with her. Mom and I love shopping.

Miranda Aldo

Annual essay contest sponsored by Foxboro Jaycees; project organized by Terri Tomasello

Awesome!

I want everyone to know I have the most awesome mom in the world because she is always there when I need her and never lets me down. She does what she can for me and makes me happy. And if she wasn't here for me I wouldn't know what to do.

Chris Fisher

She helps with homework

My mother is so terrific because she makes me supper every night. She also helps me with my homework so I do good. She also helps me get better when I'm sick and buys me a soda called ginger-ale. She also buys me toys I always wanted and toys I haven't seen before, but I loved whenever she buys me.

She also makes my cuts better. She loved me but I love her more. She also takes care of us. She also gives me a good house to live in and a good comfortable bed and a good room to sleep in. I love her soooo much.

She also helped me learn how to write, how to eat and how to read. She also goes to my soccer games and gaseball games and washes by filthy uniforms. She doesn't like it but she does it anyway.

She also sews all the rips in my clothes. She sewed my initials in my hat so I wouldn't lose it, but I lost it under my bed so she fixed it as usual.

By Bryan Heffernan

She takes us out to eat

I want everyone to know that I have the most awesome mother in the world...

Because she keeps a roof over my head. When my daddy went to Texas my mom took us out to eat almost every night. We went to McDonalds and Pub 99 and Papa Ginos. We rented movies too.

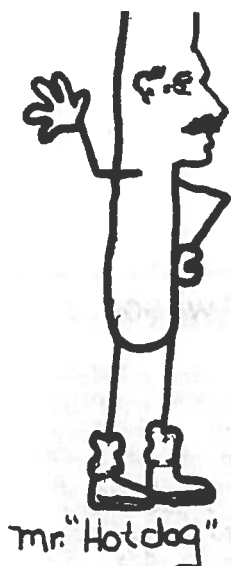

I love my mommy because of who she is, not how pretty she is, or how chubby she is (she is just a little - she says).

I also love her because she helps me with my math. I love her most of all because she is my mommy and she brought me into this world.

My mommy also helps in school, like PTO, and she subs for the teachers. She does projects with my class. I love her for letting me go to dancing school and Brownies and horseback riding and soccer and softball and T-ball and basketball and soccer camp.

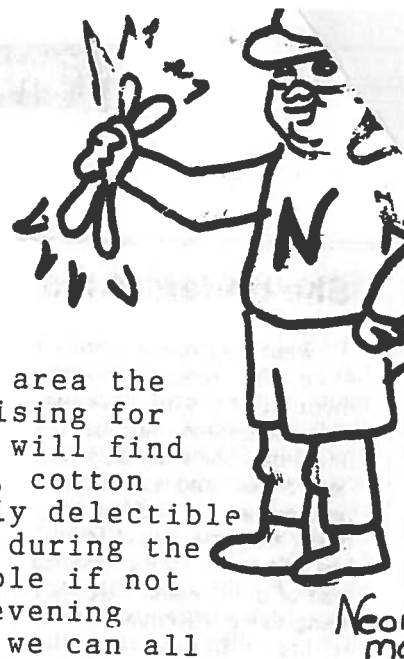

She punishes me because she wants me to learn not to do it again.

Elizabeth Schneider

WAYS AND MEANS REPORT

JUNE 1991

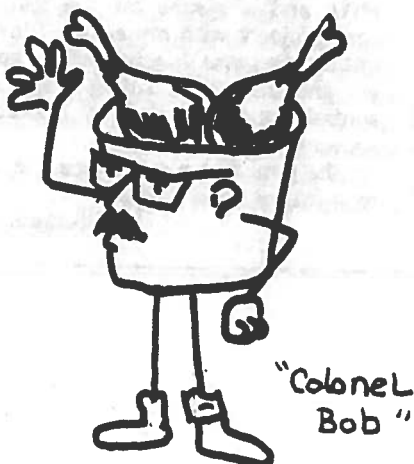

The month of June presents the Ways and Means area the opportunity to really get a leg up on fund raising for the coming year. Specifically, Founders' Day will find Jaycees selling hot dogs, soda and, hopefully, cotton candy at lunch; the ever famous and exquisitely delectable culinary dinner offering AKA chicken barbeque during the supper hour; and the almost obscenely profitable if not mystical and marvelous glow items during the evening fireworks show. The really good news is that we can all be a part of the fun--and of course you know how--manpower. If you have not already signed up for atleast one of these projects, first let me know your trick for escaping manpower calls. Then call the appropriate project chairman. Call me (Mr. Hotdog), Bob Webster (Colonel Sanders) or Fred Badger (Neon Man) and come out to enjoy Founders' Day 'Jaycee style'.

Bob Webster may also have the 'key' to another great money making idea--raffle tickets for a Great Woods show. We'll be hearing more about Bob's idea at the June GM.

Following Founders' Day, Tami Melish expects to begin preliminary leg work on the Haunted House for 1991. This work may only be administrative in nature, such as determining the hurdles for this year, but she may be looking for experienced advice or new bright ideas. If you have been a part of this project before or are looking forward to playing a role this year, let's all get on the band wagon early enough to help make a profitable project a little less of a nightmare (on Elm St. or Chestnut St.).

I mean every word of what I said at the last GM about trying some new projects this year. Please come forward with your new project ideas or concepts and let's see if we can't devise some new and interesting ways to fatten the coffers this year.

See you at Founders' Day!

Tom Sawran

INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT REPORT JUNE 1991

VOLLYBALL- Brian Smith; Volleyball will continue for the next few weeks approx. ten people have been showing up. Newcomers are always welcome and we would like some new faces next year.

30 Anniversary Banquet- G. Shepardson; Planning continues for this big event. Look for more details as the date draws near.

FOUNDERS DAY BREAKUP PARTY- This will be held the day after FOUNDERS DAY (June 9th) at Bob and Jane Websters as a clean-up and "job well done" party. Time to be announced.

CAMPING TRIP- A chairman will be needed soon for this project. It seems like there is a lot of interest in this project and it is important to get the ball rolling soon.

JAYCEE APPAREL- J. Zarella; John has ordered the shirts and expects them soon. JAYCEE hats are available now. The price is $5.00 they are high quality and a great way of showing support for the chapter, I will have them at the next GM.

INSTALLATION BANQUET- K. Badger; The banquet was held May 11th at the BEST WESTERN in Norwood a great time was had by all followed by a get together at the Badgers. Special thanks to Kathy for a job well done.

PAWTUCKET RED SOX GAME- S. Smith; In spite of a rain suspension after four innings over 40 people had a great time. This seems like something we'll want to do again. Many thanks to Sandy for all the hard work.

MEETINGS AND PROGRAMS- Sandy Smith; The June GM will start at 7:30PM Due to the fact we expect a long night with the budget. Sandy has lined up a horticulturist from Brackett Landscaping to give a short presentation and take questions. A variety of cold cuts will be available for sandwiches.

New Membership - L. Brennan

First of all I would like to let all the Jaycees know I am overwhelmed, confused, and anticipating a very successful year as VP of Membership.

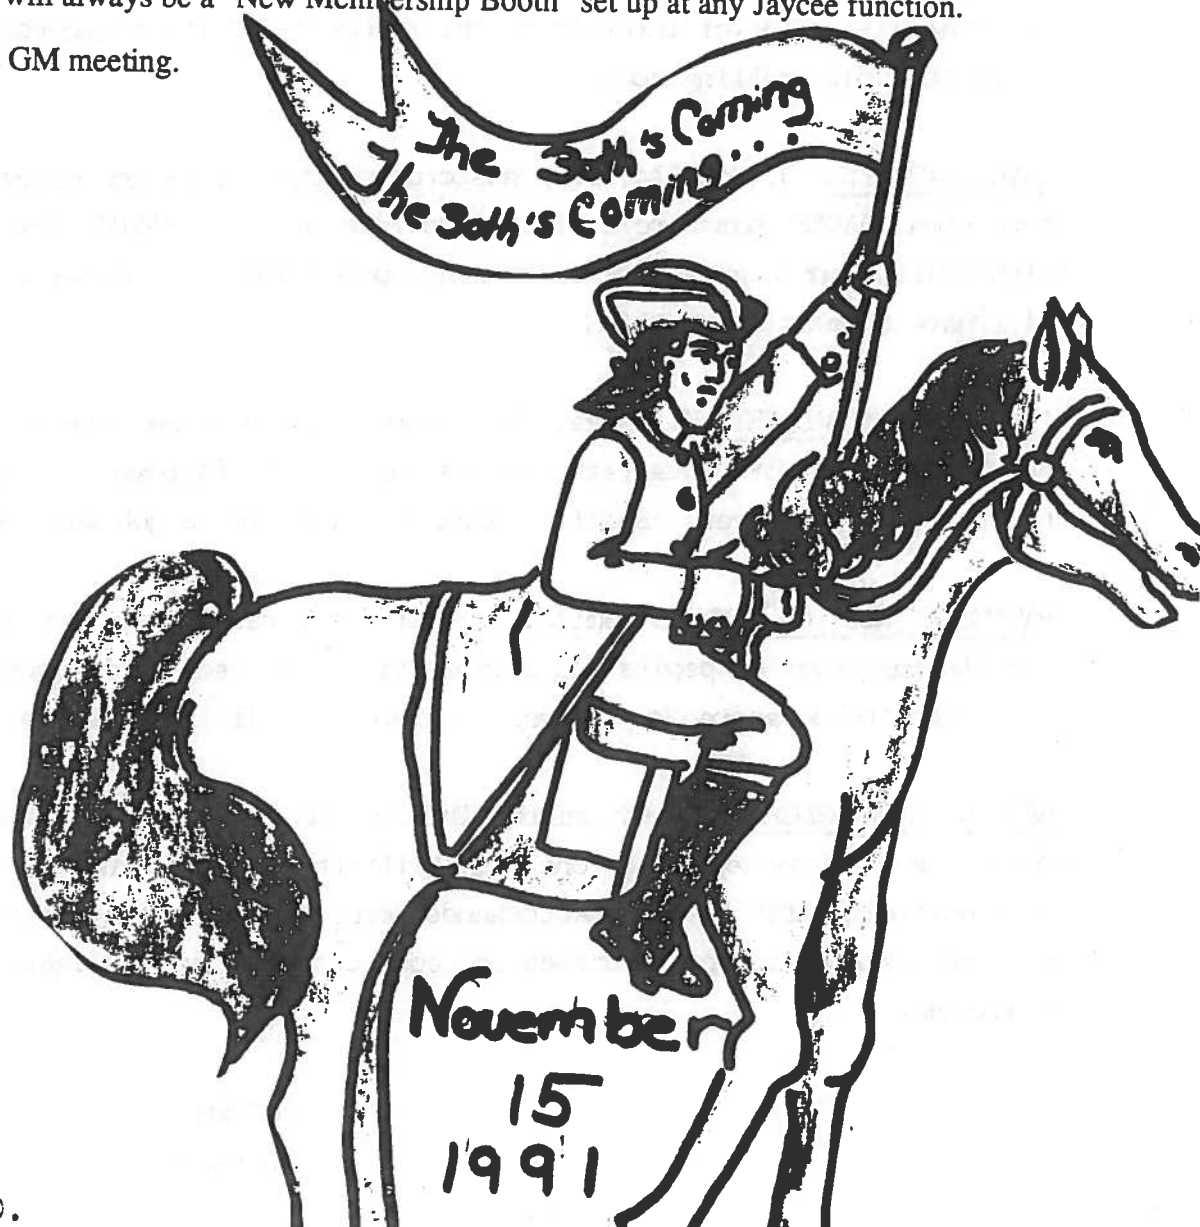

Being VP of Membership for only two days, I have to admit that this is going to be a quick message. I want you to know, however, that I have been reading all the documentation of my predecessors and have become more aware of my responsibilities. This is definitely going to be challenging!!!

We will have a booth set up at Founder's Day for new membership sign-up and will be giving "Jaycee T-shirts" to people that sign-up on that day (if you are already a member you may purchase one for $5.00). Remember to inform or bring your friends to our booth. We need members! I'll need help! So expect a phone call from me and I'll expect you to say, "I would love to help sign-up new members on Founder's Day."!

In the meantime I am concentrating on a committee to brainstorm, set goals, create incentives and prepare specific dates for the calendar year. Please be expecting a phone call because I am forming a committee. I know our chapter needs more members and this will take planning and organization.

F.Y.I. There will always be a "New Membership Booth" set up at any Jaycee function.

See you at the GM meeting.

campaign organization which extended throughout the community and attention to key details helped propel selectman candidate James Evans to a solid, 82-vote victory over opponent Cheryl Darlington on Monday.

Evans, who lives at 35 Stratton Lane, captured each of the town's five precincts on route to a 1,987 to 1,105 win.

"Organization clearly spelled the difference," Evans said shortly after being sworn in as the newest member of Foxboro's Board of Selectmen. "I'm very proud of the team we put together. Win or lose, I'm a wealthy man with friends like these."

Evans, 38, a partner in a leading financial and risk management consulting firm, replaces outgoing board member Michael DeCenzo, who announced earlier this year he would not seek re-election.

Evans waited for the final results along with Darlington and candidates in the other contested races after the polls closed at the Ahern Middle School gymnasium.

Though Evans said he was confident in his campaign organization, he later admitted to some anxious moments after an early tally showed Question 2 going down to a crushing defeat.

Question 2, which called for the creation of a municipal finance department, was defeated by nearly 1,200 votes. Evans strongly supported the measure; Darlington just as strongly opposed it.

"I think that shows the electorate can distinguish between a candidate who believes in an issue and a

The Foxboro Jaycees recently installed their new slate of officers for the upcoming year. They include Fred Badger who replaces Tim Kennedy as president, Ed Groh as vice president in charge of internal development, Bob Webster as vice president in charge of community development, Tom Sawran in charge of ways & means, Elaine Fullerton as secretary, Jane Webster as treasurer and Tim Kennedy, who shifts to state director.

In addition, the Jaycees installed the following directors: Peter St. Laurent, Mary Marshall, Karen Apgar, John Zarrella, Maureen Kelly, Sandy Smith and Kathy Badger.

PINE STREET INN PICNIC

A big thank you to all those who worked together to make our Second Annual Pine Street Inn Picnic a success. More than 50 homeless people enjoyed a pleasant afternoon of good food, music, games and friendly people. Something like this only happens when many people join in the effort. Special thanks to the Foxboro Jaycees who funded the rental of grills for the afternoon. Are we already thinking about the Third Annual Pine Street Inn Picnic? You Bet!!

single-issue candidate," Evans said.

Obviously excited at the election results, Evans' wife, Patricia, said she supported her husband's candidacy 100 percent, and doubted his new-found civic stature would spell any major differences in the family's already-hectic lifestyle.

"He's so busy right now it's not like I'll be seeing him any less," she said. "But I do think he'll make a wonderful selectman - which will make our lives in Foxboro that much better."

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Pancake Breakfast - T. Sawran

Things are moving right along. As of this writing we are waiting for tickets to be returned. The date is March 24th so don't make plans for breakfast. If you haven't already you will be called for manpower. We hope this will be the biggest <sup>ROUND</sup> one yet.

2nd Grade Basketball Clinic - Sawran/Webster

The clinic begins on March 19th for the Taylor school and March 21st for the Burrell school and runs for 5 consecutive weeks.

Candidates Night -

We hope to run this project this year. It provides a forum for candidates to voice their opinions on the issues pertaining to town government.

Museum of Discovery - F. Badger

This was an absolutely last minute project (1 day notice). My thanks to those who made themselves available on short notice to help. The project involved repairing and painting the main lobby of the museum.

Goods for the Gulf - L. Bitar

Even though peace may be at hand, in all likelihood, US presence in the gulf may still be required. If that is the case, there may still be a need to provide goods to the men and women over there. Lauren will check into this and will be able to give an update at the GM. If needed, we plan to have a collection barrel at the Pancake Breakfast.

Anon Court Moving - P. St. Laurent

While delivering sand Peter was asked by an elderly woman if the Jaycees would move some furniture for her. For those who volunteered, moving day is March 9th.

Alzheimer's Support Group - G. Shepardson

They are looking for a used piano for their adult day-care center or a donation towards the purchase of one. Any questions call Glenn or Val McKinney at Human Services.

Crime Watch - Chairman needed

We had a presentation at February's GM by Steve Vermette and Kurt Ludwig. Steve is with the Boston police department and a Foxboro resident who started a Crime Watch program in town. Kurt is a detective on the Foxboro police department and a key player on the Crime Watch program. They discussed how their program operates and what it takes to run one. Their main interest for being at the GM was to see if the Jaycees would want to start their own program. We are from many neighborhoods in Foxboro and could work in tandem with the other program. If there is anyone who has an interest and would like to chair this program, please give me a call.

Mother's Day Essays - Chairman needed

With Mother's Day approaching we need a chairman for this annual project. It involves working with the two elementary schools to conduct an essay contest. It's a good first project for new members.

Burrell School Playground - Chairman needed

Construction of the playground is scheduled for May 11th and 18th. We have been asked to provide manpower for May 18th which involves laying down timbers and spreading sand over the area. We are looking for a chairman. This would also be a good first project for a new member.

Fred Badger
C.D.V.P.

P.S. The March GM is also Associates' Night. Please come to support the old-timers.

Another busy year is quickly coming to an end. It has been a year filled with many successes. We've succeeded as a chapter in raising money to fund all of our projects. We have also succeeded in providing for the people of Foxboro with our many community projects - from the building of fences and benches at the local ballfields to helping with renovations at the new Museum of Discovery. These are just two of the many projects the Jaycees perform for the community. I think we can continue with these great projects, but still do more as a chapter.

We are supposed to be a management training organization but do little in the way of management training. We need to direct more of our attention and resources in this area. We also need to have a full time focus on membership. Bringing in new members is the life blood of our organization. While we have attracted some new members this year, we still need to attract more.

Another area that we could improve on is the capacity of the board of directors. We need to involve the board in an overseeing capacity. Next year the directors will be assigned to specific areas. This will help them better understand their position and what is expected of them. We also need to have board members chairing fewer projects and involving more of the general membership in the running of projects. This will work to create more active members and utilize the area vice presidents and directors as advisors and helpers.

I am announcing my candidacy for president. As president, I plan to address all of these issues. With your support I believe we can accomplish everything I've talked about here. Let's make next year a great year for everyone.

- 1) New Members Barbecue: Tim and Sue Kennedy have agreed to host the BBQ. this year. In return, I had to pledge some personal manpower in the finishing of their basement! I hope the party is worth it!! We're hoping for a big turnout, watch for your invitation.
- 2) Welcome Wagon Brochure: Elaine Fullerton and Lauren Bitar are working on a tri-fold brochure for the Welcome Wagon.
- 3) New Member "Handbook": Mary Marshall is working on an information pack to be given to new members. It will be an "everything you always wanted to know about the workings of the Jaycees, but were afraid to ask"!!
- 4) Membership Booth: Glen Shepardson and Liz Nametz are putting together some information and photos to display at the Pancake Breakfast. WE will also be handing out a letter of thanks to all patrons of the breakfast.

See you all at the GM,

Bob Webster, Membership VP
