What About Bob?

A Message from our President

Fellow Jaycees,

Congratulations to Peter St. Laurent for a fine Pancake Breakfast. The project ran smoothly and was a pleasure to work at. Hopefully, all of you "first timers" discovered what the old timers have known for years: This is a GREAT Jaycee Project!!!

Two other projects that are in the works are shaping up nicely. The Jaycee Roadrace is really building momentum. Sponsorships and applications are coming in at a steady pace and race day plans are under way. Come on out on April 24th to help out where you can. You will get to see some size XXL spandex and join in the after-race party at Demetri's! We'll be finishing up the year with the roadrace and starting next year with the Installation Banquet. Mary Marshall has her banquet plans well in hand and it looks like it should be a good one. So, dust off the fancy clothes and come out to the Foxboro Country Club on May 1st for dinner, dancing and year-end awards.

Congratulations February Award Winners!

Dates to Remember This Month:

New Member Barbecue.....	April 3
Easter Egg Hunt.....	April 10
Jaycee President's Day.....	April 12
G.M./Elections.....	April 14
Candidates' Night.....	April 20
Jaycee 5K Fun Run.....	April 24
Joint Board Meeting.....	April 28
Wise Fox Deadline.....	May 3

We have a very important GM coming up on April 14th. This will be when we elect our officers for the next Jaycee Year. This is an exciting time for everyone involved. To add to the excitement, our Meetings and Programs Chairman is planning a bit of a year-end clearance sale. Due to Jane's careful spending practices all year, her budget allows her to throw the last meeting "on the house". In addition to free pizza, there will be beer from at least three countries available. We had 54 people come out for Associates Night in March (a great time!!!). Let's finish the year with a great turn-out in April.

Politics and pancakes compliment each other

Politics is once again in the air, and the candidates for several town offices are out to capture your vote. Once again they will be lined up at the Foxboro Jaycees pancake breakfast on March 28.

For the past 18 years, the breakfast, held shortly after the deadline for filing nomination papers, has been regarded as the unofficial start of the campaign season here in Foxboro. This is one of those events that all prospective candidates love — hungry voters coming in with families and friends.

Historically, the arrangement has remained within acceptable bounds. Residents have grown to expect the politicking, and many even now use the pancake breakfast as a sociable opportunity to look over the new field of contenders.

Last year, however, a number of political agendas muddled the true purpose of the event. Diners entering the high school cafeteria were all but assaulted by a line of campaigners The Foxboro Reporter described as a gauntlet.

This level of politicking, uncharacteristically intense and aggressive, made for an uncomfortable and awkward situation — both for diners and for Foxboro Jaycees running the event. The breakfast is not first and foremost a political event — unlike Senate President William Bulger's annual St. Patrick's Day breakfast held this past week — but a local fund-raiser for CYO youth basketball. As such, the Jaycees this year intend to establish some ground rules about political activity.

Peter St. Laurent, chairman for the project, is asking that candidates or political action groups who want to campaign at the breakfast contact him prior to March 28 to review some of the dos and don'ts.

The Jaycees, as always, are hoping for a good turnout. There's nothing wrong with having some fun, eating plenty of pancakes and getting a little side dish of local politics at the same time — as long as it compliments sausage and maple syrup.

Pancake Breakfast

Bring your appetites and join your friends at the Foxboro Jaycees 19th annual pancake breakfast on March 28, from 7:30 a.m. until noon, at the Foxboro High School cafeteria on South Street.

It's a great excuse to get out of cooking and cleaning up and helps a good cause. All proceeds go to support Foxboro Youth Basketball.

Pancake Breakfast

Stay out of the kitchen and join your friends and neighbors at the 19th annual Foxboro Jaycees Pancake Breakfast to be held at the Foxboro High School cafeteria from 7:30 a.m. until noon on Sunday, March 28.

Let someone else do the cooking and cleaning up while you sit back and enjoy an all-you-can-eat breakfast of pancakes, sausage, juice, coffee, and milk for just $3.25 per person — just $2 for senior citizens and children under 5 are free.

The best part is that all proceeds from the event will go to benefit Foxboro Youth Basketball. More than 50 coaches volunteer to give more than 600 local youngsters the opportunity to play together while learning teamwork and self-confidence.

Road race fund-raiser April 24

Selectman hurls down gauntlet for good cause

By Frank Morlimer

Selectmen Chairman Donald Schmidt, a candidate for re-election, is "running against the press."

In Schmidt's case, the phrase refers not to a campaign attacking the news media, but to a positive run on behalf of a local man who needs a wheelchair to compete in next year's Boston Marathon.

The Foxboro Jaycees plan to hold a five-kilometer road race April 24 to raise funds to buy a racing wheelchair for Chuck McFadden, 25, a former runner who broke his back in 1991 and whose legs are paralyzed.

During a presentation Tuesday by Jane Webster, the Jaycee coordinating the fund-raiser, selectmen approved the race — and added a little spice to the competition.

Schmidt, 48, whose 11 marathons include five Boston finishes, issued a public challenge to Jeffrey Peterson, 33, managing editor of The Foxboro Reporter who has likewise worn out a few pairs of sneakers on local byways.

"I'm throwing down the gauntlet — may the best man win," Schmidt said, adding that the loser must make an extra donation to the Charles McFadden Racing Wheelchair Fund.

"I'll be looking for him," Schmidt added in an interview Wednesday.

To make sure Peterson will be in a combative mood, Schmidt tried a little teasing. "Tell him that racing induces hair growth," he said, an allusion to the editor's, um, aerodynamic edge in a headwind.

While using humor to promote the race, Schmidt and other townspeople are only too aware of the seriousness of McFadden's injury — and of his drive to compete in next year's Boston Marathon as a wheelchair entry.

On July 27, 1991, McFadden tumbled backwards off a rain-slicked balcony in Ashland, fell 21 feet, and landed on his face.

"When I landed, my body just bounced," McFadden said in an interview with this newspaper last summer. "I knew I couldn't move my legs."

A former Medway resident, he now lives in an apartment on Market Street behind CVS, keeping himself in shape by wheeling from town to town with his dog, Nikita, always beside him.

The race in his honor will begin 10 a.m. April 24, starting and finishing at the former Foxboro State Hospital on Payson Road.

To participate, runners (or walkers) pay $10 preregistration, or $12 on race day. All proceeds from the event will go toward the purchase of a racing chair for McFadden.

The first 100 runners to register and all runners with sponsorship of $50 or more will receive race T-shirts.

There will be raffles, awards, and free refreshments.

For further information and registration forms, contact Webster at 543-6959 or David Brown at 543-9686 or write to the Foxboro Jaycees at P.O. Box 169, Foxboro, MA 02035.

Pancake Breakfast Chairman, Peter St. Laurent, takes a momentary break during our highly successful 19th Annual Pancake Breakfast!

Fred Badger and Ed Growe (sic) are still smiling even after being beaten by the regulars at the Blue Hills Jaycees Wheelchair Basketball Game last month. Fred has apparently recuperated from his recent fall from the wheelchair. The condition of the wheelchair is still unknown!

Foxboro J.C.O.,

On behalf of the Foxboro Discretionary Fund, I want to thank you for your generous donation of $1500.00 to our fund.

Your donation, along with others, is what keeps the Discretionary Fund alive. Through your donations we are able to assist those in our town who are in need of food, clothing, heat, electricity, a home, daycare or whatever situation arises. The food pantry has been replenished and we are happy to say that nobody went without food during our recent shortage.

Your organization is a definite plus in this wonderful town we live in.

Dear Bob,

The Founders Day Planning Committee would like to thank you and the Foxboro Jaycees for allowing the Founders Day Committee to once again sell t-shirts and sweatshirts at the Jaycee Pancake Breakfast.

The morning was very successful for us in terms of sales and public relations. We always think of the Pancake Breakfast as the real start to the countdown to Founders Day.

We would like to mention that all the Jaycees were very helpful and accommodating to the Committee, providing us with everything that we needed. In addition, the kids were great bringing us breakfast and coffee when requested.

We hope that the Breakfast was successful for you. There seemed to be a lot of satisfied customers!

Once again, thank you for helping the Founders Day Committee.

Sincerely,

To the Foxboro Jaycees,

Many thanks for your contribution to the Youth Coalition and for your generous support of our endeavors. Your patience and support of the youth at the Haunted House filled a void for students who are searching to belong!

We are presently rotating our leadership and just formulating our future plans so the funds come at a great time.

Sincerely,

APRIL 1993

If you happened to be among the very few who missed last month's G.M., you definitely missed one outstanding Associates Night. Sandy Smith and her committee not only brought out the largest crowd I can remember at a G.M., they also managed to pry 20 associates out of their easy chairs to come for an outrageous night for fun-poking and humiliation. While the dapper John O'Neill was quite a striking co-host of the evening, I personally think it was the team of 'Oh Girls' (that's Patty O'Hara and Martha O'Neill) that had some of the real "old boys" paying close attention. Judging by the fact that I was sent out for a second keg even before the show got started, I suspect that all in attendance had, shall we say, a real good time. Thanks to Sandy and her committee for an excellent show!

Jaycee aerobics night proved challenging, to say the least, with a number of (now in much better condition) members trying out a Step Aerobics class at World Gym. While the 'hard core' regulars of aerobics might have found it to be an easy night, our Jaycee beginners managed to make it appear much harder than it looks. . . ? Congratulations to all you first timers. Thanks for giving it a try, you really looked great and did well. Special mention has to go to Bob Webster for stress testing the plastic steps used for the class. While he was remarkably agile and managed to keep "in Step" for most of the routine, the club management did tell me they had to retire his step from further use after the class. Our thanks to World Gym and Instructor Tracy Sjoberg for the complimentary class!

Cheryl Cushman swears on a stack of Bibles (well, actually she said there was a pretty good chance) that we will see Universal Jaycee Apparel at this month's G.M. With some eleventh hour help from Lynn Poirier, our product may actually be on the shelves and ready for purchase at SSE by mid-April. ~~It's about time.~~
Good job Cheryl!

Elections night will be at this G.M., April 14. Please plan to attend to support the candidates for election to next year's Board. No, this isn't a campaign speech, but an invitation to participate in molding the future of your chapter for the next year. Besides, Meetings and Programs Chairperson, Jane Webster will be providing free 'Road Race' pizza, and "Sponsored-Runner Snacks". Rumor has it that Finish Line Beers may even be on the house. She may also want to make some brief mention of the April 24th Road Race. . . who knows?

Don't forget to make your reservations early for the Inaugural Ball, I mean, Installation Banquet on May 1. Mary Marshall has been hard at work on the event, to be held at the Foxboro Country Club. In addition to swearing in our new officers for the year and recognizing the accomplishments of this year past, we will Rooster all the new Associates. Owing to the bumper crop of new Associates this year, we may actually have to re-file as a senior citizen club. Don't miss seeing some of the real long-standing and seemingly invincible Regulars finally go down for the count when they are Roostered into the ranks of Associatehood. Mary won't even tell me who the Rooster-Master is for the year. Expect this to be a real big night.

See you all on April 14!

Welcome to the Wonderful World of Ways & Means.

The pancake placements looked swell at the Pancake Breakfast, even with maple syrup and butter stains, these babies shined! Congratulations, Deb Wendell on a project well-run! Exact dollar amount generated through this project at the April G.M.

Fred Badger is chairing the Founder's Day Food Concessions Stand. He has assembled a committee and will be meeting soon. More information on the committee's progress at the April G.M.

Patti Swanson is chairing the Founder's Day Glowsticks project. Since we will be ordering twice as many of these items as last year, Patti will be needing extra help on this one. Patti is forming a committee (as I write this); if you are interested in helping her distribute these fine products, please let her know... ASAP!

That's all for now. . .

MEMBERSHIP

Fellow Jaycees...With the month of April upon me, I'm busy with several major projects! See Below! New members...don't hesitate to get involved quickley! The sooner you get involved on a committee the sooner you'll be enjoying yourself even more! Again, welcome to all the new members and a special welcome to our lasted new member Eric.

"Does anyone have any referrals"???

SPRING MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

The Membership Drive is all set to go on April 4th. from 1p.m. to 3p.m. at the Community Center. The committee got together and sent out 300 hundred invitations to local Foxboro residents. Now we're just sitting tight and waiting for those RSVP's to come in!!! The membership social will be boasting "make your own Pizza" and design a t-shirt for the children! Other features of the social will be Jaycee information (of course) and a few inviting words from our President!!!

NEW MEMBERSHIP BAR-B-QUE

A special thanks to Kathy & Fred Badger for stepping forward to chair this fantastic social! The social is all set for April 3rd. at The John Freudenberg Mansion. I hope everyone received their special invitation created by Cheryl Cushman. If not, please call the Badgers at 543-9447. It promises to be a good time with good eats and perhaps some ping-pong competitions! I'm hoping to see everyone there especially all you new members (please refer to the New Members Chart)!

PANCAKE BREAKFAST MEMBERSHIP BOOTH

The membership booth is all set for March 28th. The booth will feature Jaycee information (photographs, brochures, Wise Fox Editions, etc.) and invitations to come out to the Membership Social on April 4th. The booth will also feature our latest project: The Foxboro Jaycees 5k Fun Run! Applications will be available.

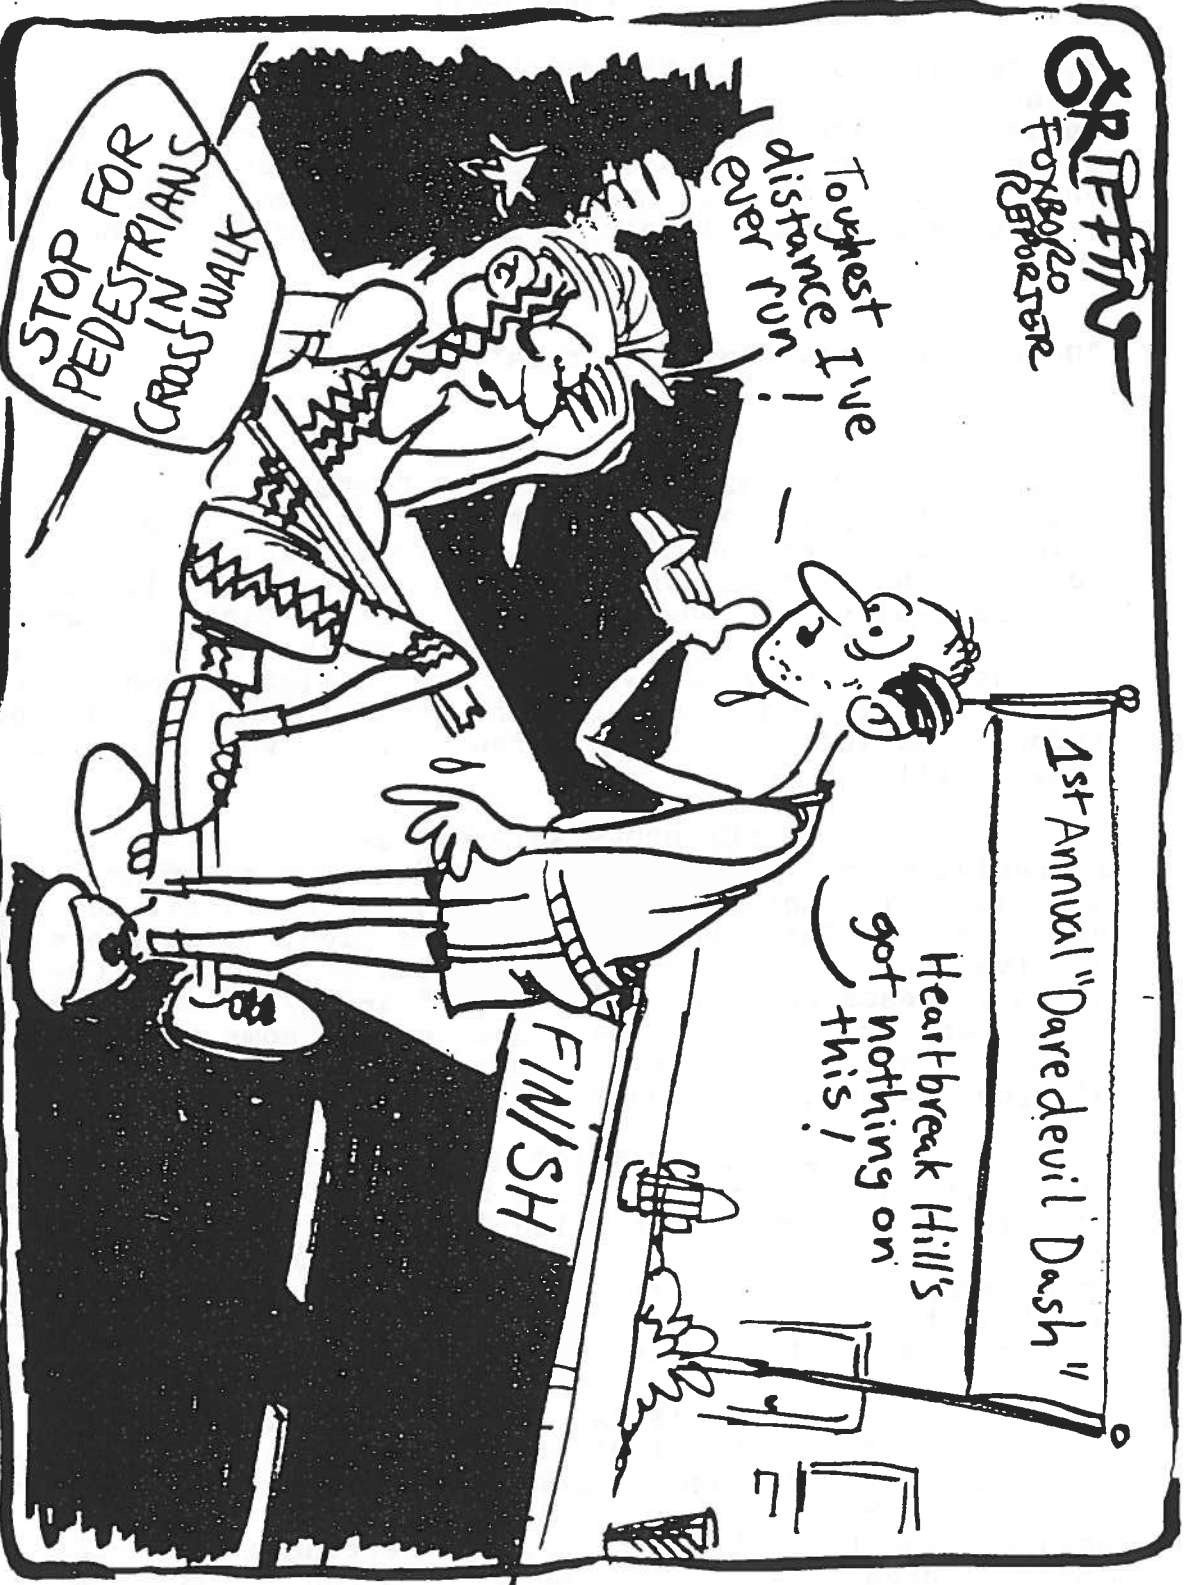

FOUNDER'S DAY MEMBERSHIP BOOTH

Congratulations to Patti O'Hara for stepping forward to chair the Haunted House Shooting Gallery at Founder's Day. (Rumor has it that Patti didn't even realize what she was volunteering for!!!) Patti will be getting a committee together soon to start working on this fun project. A sign-up sheet will be passed around at the April G.M.

P.S. I'm not waddling (yet)!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
