It does not go unnoticed.

Who's Who

Another person to meet! I would like to welcome Cindy Venuto to our chapter. Cindy found out about the Jaycees through Stephanie Maziarz and she was sworn in at the August GM. Hopefully some of you had the chance to meet her. Now let's learn a little bit more about Cindy!

Cindy was born in Canada but now resides here in Foxboro on Cocasset Street. She has three beautiful daughters: Kristen (11), Megan (10), and Julia (8). Cindy works as a customer service representative.

Like many busy moms, Cindy doesn't have a lot of time for hobbies. She says she is and always will be a supermom who is involved in her kids' lives as well as with the community. We love people like that! She is not new to volunteer work. She has been a part of the PTO, community advisory groups and other volunteer positions that are a part of her kids' lives.

Cindy is excited to see what kinds of projects are out there. She wants to be able to contribute in a positive way. I am sure that she will fit right in with us! Welcome Cindy Venuto to our Foxboro Jaycees family.
